Keen Competition for Lawn Bowling Trophy

The lawn bowling club has been a popular spot on these hot summer evenings.

Several new members have joined the club this year, according to secretary Walter Gray, and there has been a particularly good attendance at the Monday and Thursday jitneys. The ladies have been providing lunch Thursday nights for the bowlers.

There is keen competition for the club trophy which has already changed hands twice this season. The trophy is an open challenge one and the holders can be challenged at any time, with the last to win it in the fall holding it for the winter.

Claude and Howard Kentner had it last winter, but it was taken away at the start of the season by W. G. Bell and James Richardson who in turn lost it to Ern Thompson and Walter Gray. Another challenge game is scheduled tonight when Claude Kentner and Norman Iam attempt to take the cup away.
