Graduates

"Character is found to show in person," said school inspector L. L. Skuce speaking to the graduating classes of the two local public schools at a banquet Tuesday in Wrigglesworth auditorium.

"If you have a good personality you will like you," said Mr. Skuce, urging the young people to work hard to develop this important factor in their success in adult life.

The banquet, tendered by the Home School Association, was the first held and brought together all the girls in their party frocks and the boys in their Sunday best. A salad supper was served at tables decorated with the school colours, purple and gold for Chapel and blue and white for Wrigglesworth.

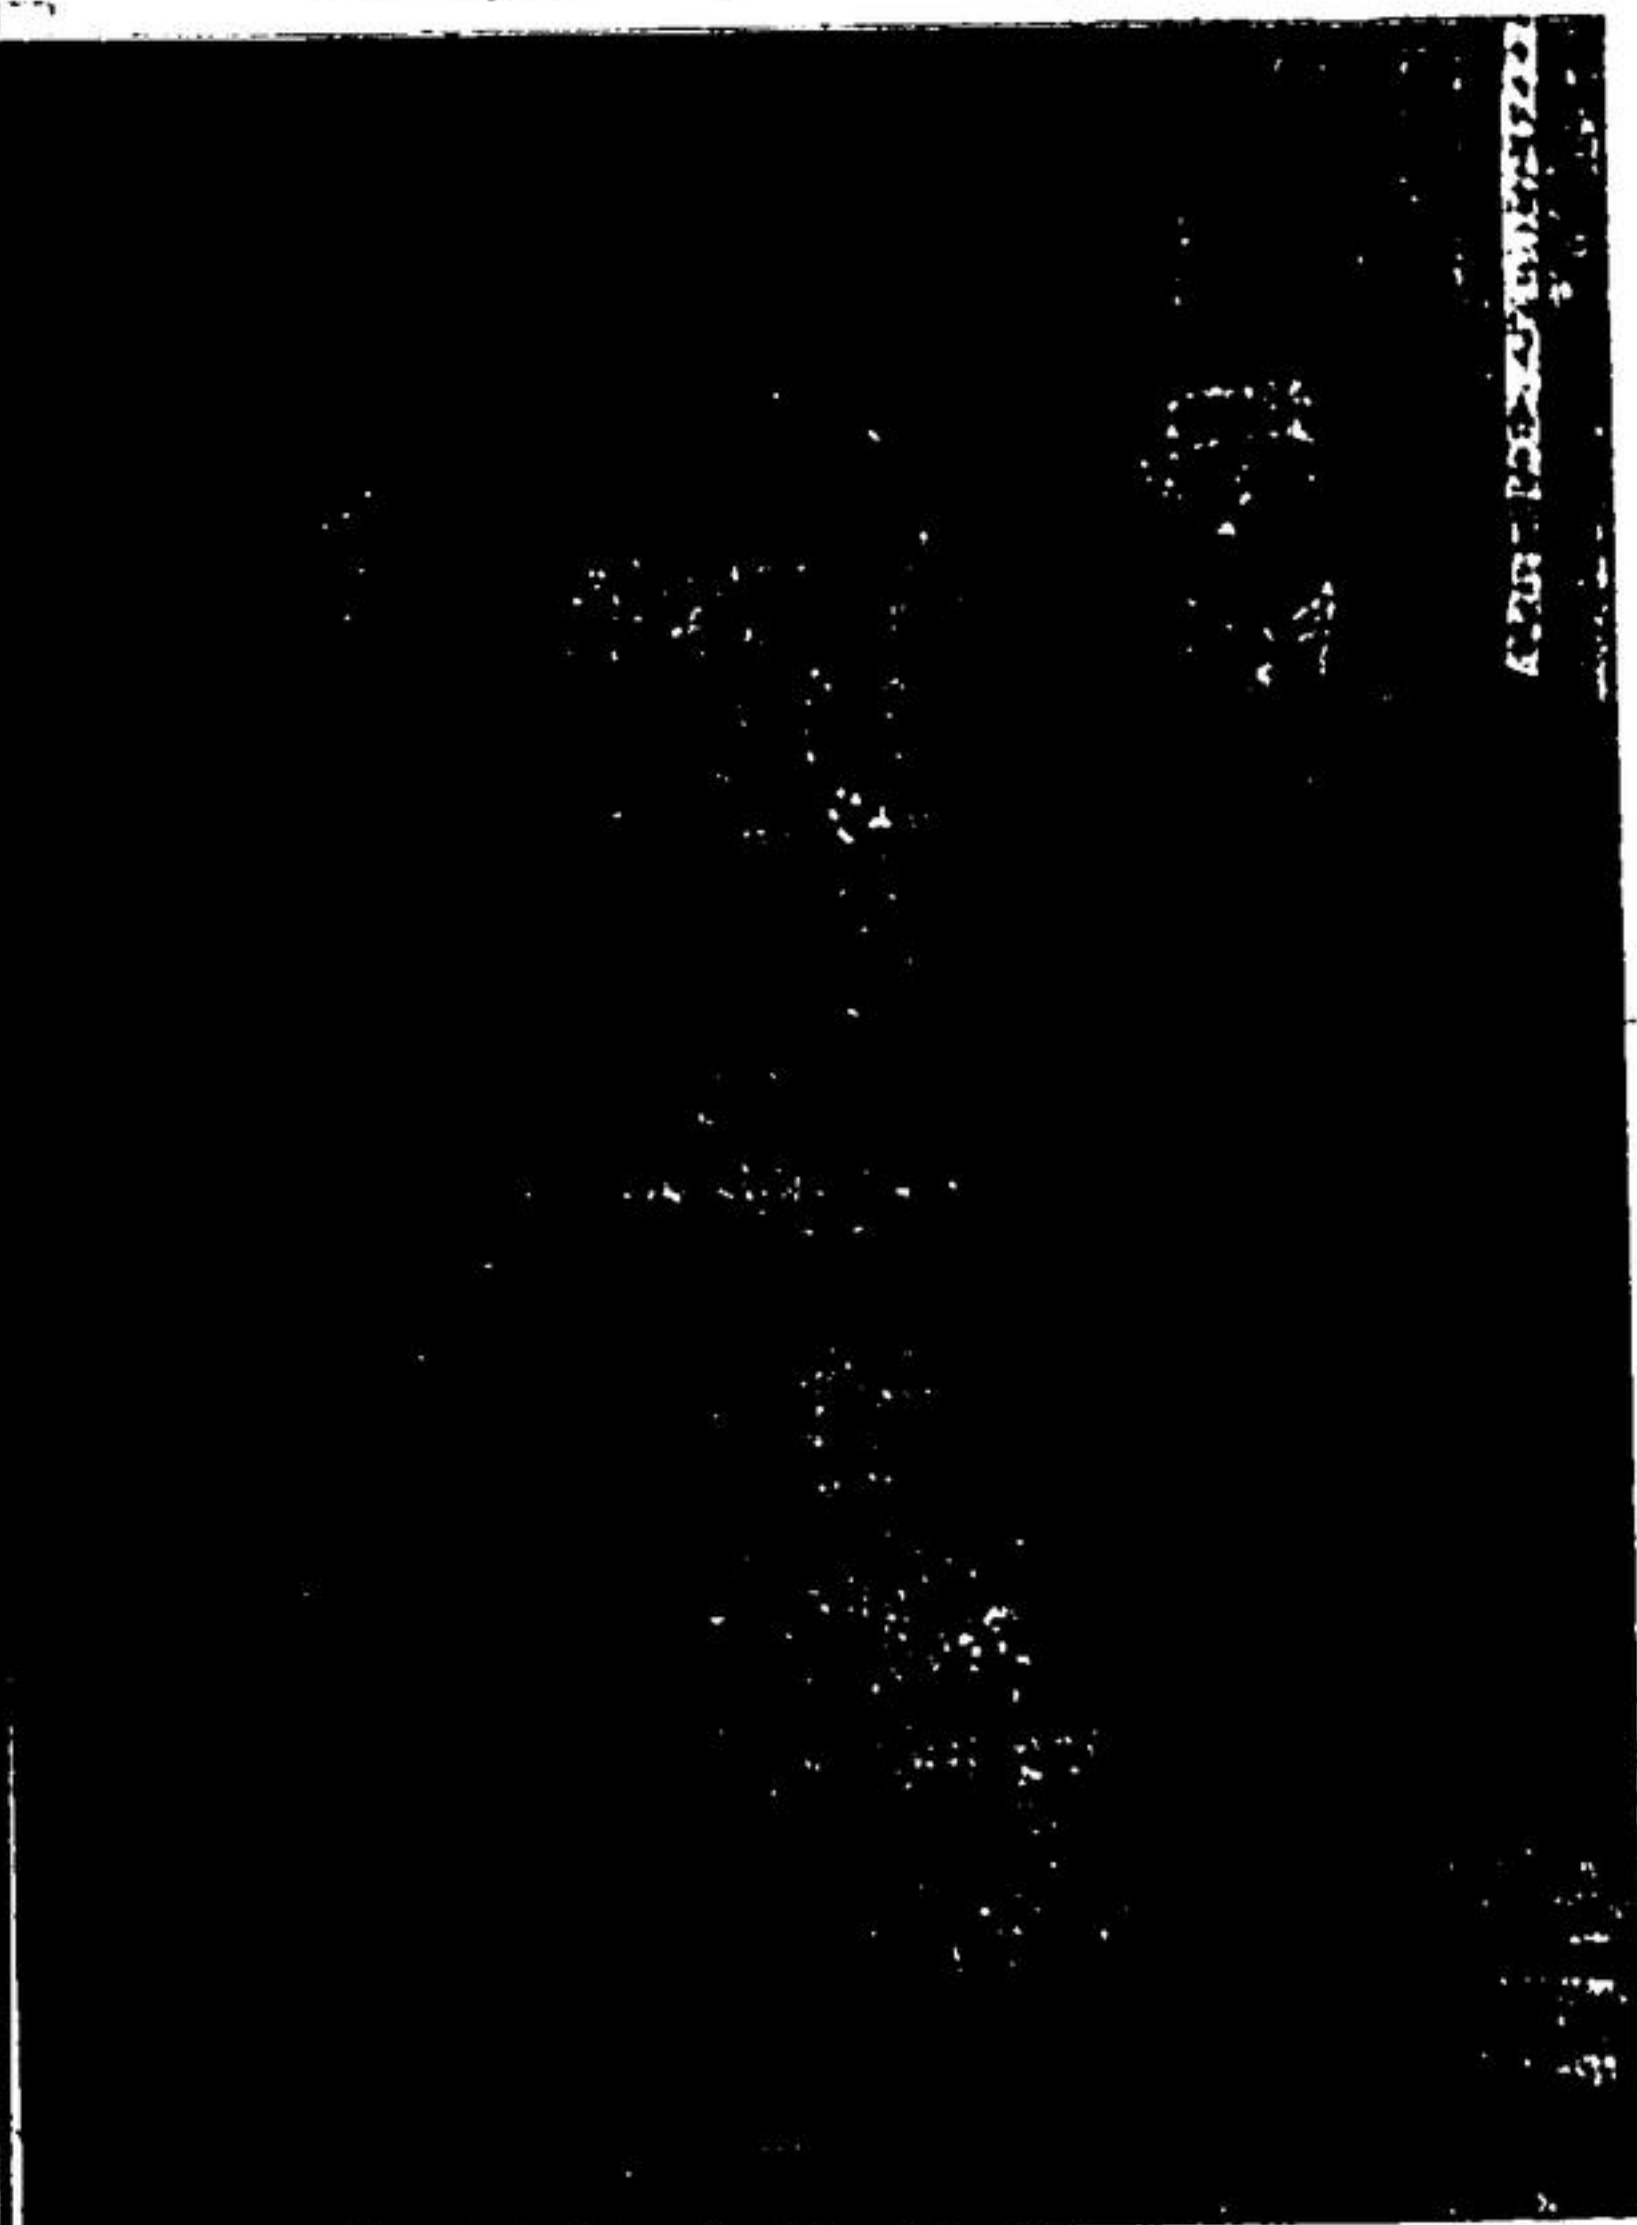

The pupils did much of the planning themselves. Head table guests included Mr. Skuce, Principals Harold Peary and William Kinrade, school board chairman Wray Salter, Mrs. Joe Emerson and Sam Penrice, president and past president of the Home School.

Bob Hutchinson was toastmaster. Margaret Eason gave reminiscences of Wrigglesworth School, while David Smith, representing 1955 graduates, gave the valedictory.

Toasts included one to the teachers by Raymond Fletcher; to Chapel Street school by June Lyon; Wrigglesworth school by Wayne Preston; and the queen, Harvey Handy. Carolyn Biehn and Grace, Karen Scott introduced Mr. Skuce and he was thanked by Harold Kinrade. Jill Kentner expressed thanks to the Home and School group for tendering the banquet.

There was dancing afterwards, with several prizes donated by merchants and supplies of pop from the Lions Club.

Ronald Hilts and Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hilts were married in St. John's United Church and are now living in Georgetown. He is the son of Mrs. Roy Hilts and the late Mr. Hilts, Glen Williams, and his bride, Dorothy Elaine Brandford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brandford.

Reburn-Smellie Wedding Shelburne Church Event

Many guests attended the wedding at St. Paul's Church, Shelburne on Saturday, June 18th, of Lois Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smellie, Norval to John Milton Reburn, son of Mrs. Reburn and the late Milton Reburn, Shelburne.

Rev. J. M. Dobson officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of peonies, roses and orange blossoms. Mrs. Marshall was organist and Mr. Willis Tipping rendered "The Lord's Prayer" on the saxophone before the service and "Because" during the signing of the register.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore white nylon embroidered organdie, made with fitted bodice and bouffant three tiered skirt, ending in a short train. Her headdress of lily-of-the-valley held a shoulder length veil and she carried a white prayer book with a small cascade of ribbon red rosebuds and lily-of-the-valley.

She was attended by her sisters, James as maid-of-honour, and Marion, Mrs. Douglas Wake, as bridesmaid. Miss Cheryl McCarthy was the winsome flower-girl. They wore ballerina length dresses of white eyelet embroidered organdie over blue taffeta with matching head bands trimmed with forget-me-nots and they carried large cascade bouquets of blue carnations and stephanotis.

Mr. George Reburn, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Mr. Edward Smellie, brother of the bride and Mr. Wilson Packer, brother-in-law of the groom. Master Brian Evans, cousin of the bride made a handsome little ring-bearer, dressed like the wedding party in white jacket and blue trousers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Shelburne Community Centre where the bride's mother received the guests, wearing a light blue Pau O'Ange lace dress with matching jacket and hat, navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a midnight blue crepe dress with lace inserts, light blue and navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For travelling to Eastern Canada and the USA the bride wore a coral linen suit with white and beige accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will take up residence in New Toronto.

Prior to their marriage John and Lois were entertained at a number of delightful parties in honour of the coming event and were recipients of many beautiful gifts.

On Friday evening, June 10th, Pine Grove Farm Forum of Norval held a social evening and presented them with a lovely bridge set.

Mrs. Douglas Wake and Mrs. Wilson Pacey entertained Lois on Friday night, May 27th, with a miscellaneous shower at the former's home.

Mrs. Bernice Cornfield and Mrs. Kay Irwin held a miscellaneous shower on April 28th at Mrs. Cornfield's home in Weston.

Mrs. Helen Gamble and Miss Jean Reburn entertained Lois' friends at the home of Mrs. Wilson Pacey on Saturday, June 4th with a linen shower.

Norval United Minister Rev. Ross Muir, 53, Dies

Well done, good and faithful servant... Enter thou into the joy of Thy Lord. — (St. Matt. 25:23) were the words chosen by Rev. George R. Service, B.A., BD of Howard Park United Church in Toronto to pay tribute to his late friend and classmate, Rev. A. Ross Muir, 53, in Norval on Saturday afternoon, July 2nd.

Mr. Muir, a native of Guelph, died in Toronto General Hospital on Thursday, July 30th, after a month's illness. He was ordained as a minister of the United Church of Canada in 1932, and served churches in both northern and southern Ontario for twenty-three years. More recently on the Clifford, Erin and Norval charges. He had been minister of Norval and Glen Williams United Church for the past year.

Before entering the Christian ministry, he had been a chemist and had spent two years in the Banting Research Institute, assisting in the production of insulin.

The funeral service was conducted by members of Dufferin and Peel Presbyteries, with the newly-appointed chairman, Rev. Frank Sullivan of Camilla presiding, assisted by Rev. John McBurnid of St. Paul's United Church, Brampton. The pallbearers, all men,
