

Mrs. C. E. Richardson, 75 Dies at Daughter's Home

A resident of the 7th Line, Erin Township for the past two years, Mrs. Charles Edward Richardson, 75 was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, June 27th, following funeral service in Toronto.

Mrs. Richardson had been living with her daughter, Mrs. B. E. Scull on the Harding homestead across from Dr. Clifford Reid's farm. She had been in ill health since February.

A native of Cumberland, England, she was the former MARY Elizabeth Dawson. She came to Canada with her husband in 1912 and they had lived most of the time since then in Toronto.

Surviving are two children, Dorothy, Mrs. B. E. Scull, E. R. I. Georgetown and Douglas Richardson of Toronto; two grandchildren Sharon and Alan Richardson; and several brothers and sisters in England.

The funeral service in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Toronto, was conducted by Elder Collins of Oshawa assisted by Elder Striffling of Toronto. Mr. Collins also conducted a graveside service in Georgetown.

Entertain County Blind Residents at Picnic

Blind residents of Halton and Peel counties were entertained last Wednesday at a picnic at the home of Crown Attorney A. G. and Mrs. Day in Brampton.

There was a program of games conducted by George Elliott, Q.C. and J. E. Whitlock of Milton, a variety show headed by Billy Meek and a picnic supper. Each person present was given a small gift. Some seventy blind people attended, including eight from this district.

The picnic was arranged by the county committee of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, with Dick Liscas aiding with arrangements in this area. Mrs. J. F. Gillis and Mrs. Percy Leslie acted for Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE, in ar-
