Stewarttown Shower for Miss Frances Jenkinson

Miss Frances Jenkinson of Thorold was entertained at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. C. A. Grant at her home in Stewarttown last Wednesday evening.

The room was tastefully decorated with baskets of flowers arranged by Miss Beatrice Standish. The bride-to-be was seated in a beautifully decorated section of the room. Frances assisted by her two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Frank Jenkinson of Toronto and Mrs. John Jenkinson of Georgetown, opened the many lovely and useful gifts contained in the pretty pink basket set before her.

One of the highlights of the evening, which caused a great deal of fun and laughter was a bride's book, containing the history of the bride and groom, in cartoon and snapshots. Frances thanked her friends for their kind remembrances after her long absence from the village, and thanked the hostess, and her assistants, and Miss Anne Humphreys for her artistic touch in decorations.

She invited all present to attend the wedding ceremony in St. George's Church, Homer, in August, and mentioned the fact that the Rev. S. E. Colebrook, a former rector of Stewarttown will be the officiating minister.

Mrs. Humphreys, her daughter Anne, and Miss Ruby Tennant assisted the hostess to serve a dainty and delightful lunch.

Brownridge Homestead
Still in Family Name

More than 200 members of the Brownridge clan, one of the oldest families in Peel and Halton counties, gathered for a reunion at the Junior Farmers' Building, Brampton.

Local ancestry dates back to 1819 when Thomas Brownridge came from England and, three years later, wed Eliza Ward, member of a well-known Islington family. The original homestead, still in the family name, is at lot four, concession seven, Esqueving Township, at Hornby. The property now is farmed by Ward Brownridge, a fourth generation member of the clan.

Mrs. Robert Biggar, the former Minerva Brownridge, now 97, and Mary Brownridge, 94, both of Milton, were the oldest among the gathering of 207. Members of the family were on hand from most of the provinces and several US states.

Jack Guthrie, Rushton Road, Toronto, was elected president of the clan, succeeding John Brownridge, Barclay Road, Toronto.

Ninety members of the family association attended a special memorial service on Sunday afternoon at Ashgrove United Church, two miles north of the homestead. The gathering was addressed by Rev. John McDermid of St. Paul's United Church, Brampton. Thomas Brownridge, and his wife are buried in a plot on the old farm.

Anglican Rector Takes Part in Conference

Plans for the annual Niagara Leadership Conference for young people sixteen years and over have been completed, and the Dean of this year's session the Rev. J. C. Fricker of the Church of St. Augustine of Canterbury anticipates an exceptional good conference.

He reported that the Conference will be held at the same site, as in former years, at Camp Owasissa near Dunnville from August 28th to September 5th. The theme will be the Mission of the Church as it is related to the world, the community and the parish. Lecturers will be the Rev. G. Coster Scovell, a recent missionary in China and now assistant at the Church of the Ascension, the Rev. D. C. Candy of St. Cyprian's Church in Toronto and the Diocesan Director of Religious Education, the Rev. Michael Creal of Winona.

Other features will be supervised recreation, handicrafts and fellowship. The staff has been announced by the Dean and is as follows: Dean, Rev. J. C. Fricker, Church of St. Augustine of Canterbury; Rev. Kenneth Richardson of the Parish of Georgetown and Glen Williams; Rev. B. C. Purcell, of Christ Church, St. Catharines; Rev. L. C. Raymond, St. Timothy Church, Hamilton; Rev. Harry Mansfield, rector of St. Christopher's Church, Burlington; Rev. E. Wallace, rector of St. James Church, Fergus; Rev. H. Thommasson, rector of St. Luke's Church, Hamilton; Rev. D. Woeller, assistant St. Thomas Church, Hamilton.

Forest Fire Losses are Major Calamity: Ambridge

D. W. Ambridge, president of Abitibi Power and Paper Company, said today that Ontario forest fire losses must be regarded as a major provincial calamity.

Mr. Ambridge said: "The area involved in this year's fires will take upwards of half a century to recover. Casual readers of reports of fire swept woodlands may easily gain an impression that conflagrations come from natural causes and must be expected in periods of dry weather. There is no such thing as a natural forest fire. Lightning occasionally does damage, but the eighty per cent source of destruction is provided by reckless human beings. Whether through carelessness in land-clearing, leaving camp fires blazing, or tossing away lighted tobacco, the forests are set afire by those people who most benefit by them, whether through recreation or daily work."

"It is estimated by the Canadian Forestry Association that public negligence in wooded country destroys 300 million young trees each year. Left to develop as nature intended, they would furnish Canadian industry with a steady succession wood-crops, assuring a stable supply to forest manufacture and the immense volume of employment dependent upon it."

"Let it be made quite clear, the substance that goes into a flaming timberland is not trees but trade. It is not the 'wilderness' that has caught afire, but the future pay cheques of a multitude of our people."
