

Girl Pipers Win Cup In Competition at Soo

Georgetown Girls Pipe Band won their first championship in competition at the Sault Ste. Marie centennial celebration last week.

The band was engaged to play as one of the features of the centennial and did not know when they left Georgetown that they would also be competing in one of the contests. It was their first such competition and they were judged better than the Fort William organization. They won a large cup offered for permanent competition, a miniature which will remain in the band's possession and a $100 cheque. The cup is displayed in the Herald window this week.

The whole 16-member band made the trip west, accompanied by Mrs. John Patterson and Mrs. Ray Whitmee as chaperones. Members of the band are: Anne Luke, Elma Stringer, Eileen Kerr, Joan Cummins, Mrs. James Torwick, Pat Day, June Allan, Virginia Walker, Shirley Wright, Mrs. Homer Stennett, Helen Muckart, Mrs. Harold Rasmussen, Barbara Alcott, Ann Taylor, Mim Grace and Charlene Day.

The band has had several engagements this season, including appearances at Port Dover, where they were televised on the Hamilton station, Kincardine, and Shelburne Orange parade. Future bookings include Lindsay and Rockton fairs in September, and possible engagements at Dundalk Markham, Sudbury and the CNE.

C. H. Bennett Son of Georgetown Dentist

Resident of Winnipeg for many years, and a native of Georgetown, Clarence Hamilton Bennett, 79, died on June 10th.

Although he left town as a young man, Mr. Bennett had kept up his interest in Georgetown through the Herald and was one of the paper's oldest subscribers.

His father was a dentist, Dr. L. I. Bennett who had his office in the old Creelman building, and the family lived on Main Street N. in the house owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Mulholland.

Mr. Bennett went to Toronto to work with the T. Eaton Co. after attending school here, was transferred west many years ago and worked with the company in Winnipeg until his retirement.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter Mrs. Douglas Chivers of Winnipeg, the former Jane Moore Bennett, and three sisters, Mrs. Craig Stewart (Lilie) of Churchville, N.Y., Mrs. H. T. Arnold and Mrs. Bert Grinzer, Toronto.

West End Hardware New Highway Business

Another new business opened in the district last week.

West End Hardware and Building Supply, located on No. 7 Highway at the Limehouse sideroad is operated by Mr. and Mrs. John Emberson, who built a new home there three years ago when they moved from Guelph.

Mr. Emberson learned his business in a practical way by building his own home and is offering free advice to home builders along with his business of supplies. He is an employee of the A. V. Roe Co. at Malton.

Mr. and Mrs. Emberson have three children, John, Linda and Chris and are members of the Anglican Church.

N&G's Beat Woodbridge In Two Lacrosse Games

Georgetown N&G's bolstered their standing last week when they won two games from Woodbridge.

Wednesday in Georgetown Arena, Evans led the scorers, contributing 4 goals to the 14-10 win for the locals. McCandless and Malloy were also high in the scoring, each getting 3 goals, with Caruso adding a ball.

Woodbridge had no better luck on their home ground Monday and lost out 8-4. This time Caruso and Mc-Cann shared scoring honours, each getting 3 goals. Foster had two.

The team is nearing the end of the regular playing schedule and has only five games left. Home games will be played here tonight when Burlington are the visitors, next Wednesday, Owen-sen, and August 3rd, Owen-sen.
