Canadian Defends Gold Seagram Cup First Time

Why do so many of North America's top golfers so arrange their affairs that they are able to compete year after year. For the Canadian Open Golf championship?

The answer is in two parts — the prestige of winning the Seagram Gold Cup and the $15,000 in prize money that is distributed amongst the top 30 golfers in the tournament.

This year, the Canadian Open is being played over the Weston (Toronto) Golf and Country Club course and it will be the first time that the Gold Cup is to be defended by a Canadian — Pat Fletcher, of Saskatoon. Fletcher surprised the critics of golfdom last year by winning the Open after it had become traditional that the heavy guns of American golfing had much the best of the odds.

The 48th Canadian Open offers $15,000 in prize money. The winner takes temporary possession of the famed cup, plus $2,400, plus a gold replica of the trophy for his permanent collection. Second money is $1800, 5th is $1,000, 10th is $440, 20th prize money is $200 and the lowest cash award ($100) goes to the golfer who stands 30th in the tournament listing.

Aside from the honour of winning the Canadian Open, a year's possession of the Seagram Gold Cup is a rich reward in itself. The trophy is an exquisite example of craftsmanship standing 22 inches high. Commanding first attention is the golden casket containing the parchment scroll of winners, mounted on heavily-chased silver feet and set on a massive onyx base. Two golden beavers act as additional support, and the Canadian coat of arms and the words "Seagram Gold Cup" are executed on the front.

Supported by the gold casket is the Seagram cup itself executed in gold in a Grecian design. The cup carries the crest of the Royal Canadian Golf Association and the inscription "Canadian Open Golf Championship—for annual competition."

FARM NEWS SHORT NOTES

We have reports that the Aberfeldy and Merrybrook Shorthorn herds owned by Redford Gardhouse and Harland Merry respectively, have done exceptionally well to date on the western show circuit winning several 1st prizes and championships at Brandon.

Pasture continues to be short supply. It is at this season of the year that thoughts of irrigation come to the fore. It appears that fruit, vegetable and cash crop growers can't get along without it, perhaps others will have to follow their lead.

Haltion 4-H Clubs and the Ontario 4-H Club programme will be receiving wide publicity in the west now. We feel sure that Katherine Merry, who is currently on a 4-H exchange visit in Manitoba, will impress 4-H Club members, leaders and officials, with her charm, knowledge of 4-H work and speaking ability.

Thursday, July 28th, is the date set for the annual Haltion Soil and Crop Improvement Association's twilight tour. It is planned to visit the Wild Carrot Control demonstration plots; oat and variety plots, etc. It is expected that Prof. Richards, head of the Soils Department, will be guest speaker.

GO TO LONG ISLAND FOR RELATIVES FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sienko drove to Long Island, N.Y., to the funeral of Mr. Sienko's brother-in-law, Mr. J. Kordal who died July 18th. Mr. Kordal had been ill about a year. He is survived by his wife and three children.

46 years old this year, the Seagram Gold Cup was first offered in competition during the Open of 1936 when Lawson Little walked off with first money at the Toronto St. Andrew's course. Conceived and wrought in Canada, the Cup seemed destined to become a permanent "exile", when year after year by U.S. competitors and brought back to home territory for a few fleeting weeks each year — only to be taken out of the country again.

So it went for 18 years until Saskatoon's Pat Fletcher put the "Canadian" in the Canadian Open with his unexpected win in 1954. Fletcher will be out again this year to defend the Seagram Gold Cup and he will have some promising Canadian company in their drive to keep the Gold Cup in Canada.

CLUB MIDTOWN

K. M.

Well, at the beginning of the summer a vote was held at a Friday night dance to decide how often to hold Midtown during the summer. Nearly everyone wanted it every Friday night. I think we all agreed that was a good idea, but unfortunately the turnout got progressively smaller and lately there haven't been enough kids to warrant a dance.

We haven't given up hope yet, tho'. We are going to hold our dances every other Friday, same time, same place. That means that we'll see you all on Friday, August 5th.

Let's have the whole crowd and till then let's hope it cools down a bit on Friday nights.

BARBER'S HOMER TIES COTTONS FOR FIRST

Last night in the Georgetown Park Cooksville defeated Cotton's 5-3 in an exhibition game. These two clubs are tied for first place . . . both having identical records of 7 wins and 2 defeats with one game remaining in the schedule.

In a very loosely played contest Cotton's got off to a fast start, scoring a run in each of the first two innings. Cooksville came back in the 4th to score 3 runs on 3 hits and an error. This seemed to take the life out of Cotton's, who only managed 2 hits for the rest of the game. Cooksville scored another pair in the 6th inning, off Don Sherman. These 2 teams who have practically run away with the league and Malton and Brampton who seem to be assured of the other play-off position will start their play-offs in Brampton in approximately 10 days.

	Wins	Losses
Cooksville	7	2
Cotton's	7	2
Brampton	5	4
Malton	4	5
Thistletown	3	5
Streetville	1	7

With Cooksville losing this week to Brampton and Cotton's defeating Thistletown 5-3, Cotton's are now tied for first place in the Brampton District Softball League. Cotton's took the lead with three runs on two walks and two hits by Gord King and Blake Ingila. The three runs looked very good but Thistletown weren't giving up, picking up single runs in the 4th and 6th innings. Cotton's were unable to do anything off the offerings of Aubin after the first innings until the 7th. In Cotton's half of the 9th after two were out Patterson walked and George Barber hit a home run to make the score 8-2. Thistletown came back with one run in the 8th and Frank settled down and shut them out for the rest of the inning.

Line Score	R.	H.	E.
Thistletown	3	7	3
Cotton's	5	7	1
