WAREINGLEAMILY BACK IN ENGLAND

Residents of town for neveral years, Mr and Mrs. Jack Wareing and family have returned to England and intend to make their home in the southern part of their homeland.

Their daughter Kathleen and the two younger boys Kevin and Nial crossed the Atlantic in June. Mr. and Mrs. Wareing and their eldest son Sean remained in Georgetown for a few weeks longer, then took passage from New York City on July 16th. They were in Stockport, Chushire when a friend in town received word from them last week.

Resurfacing Proceeds On Portions of No. 7

Repaying of portions of No. highway between Rockwood and Brampton: is smoothing out rough patches in the road which have bohered motorists for some time.

Some 10,000 tons of new material is being laid by Beamish Construction Co.

Major work on the highway through Georgetown is still hoped for this year. There is much red tape which has to be ironed out between the town and the highways department, which share costs of the resurfacing and contracts still have not been called for the work.

Preliminary action for the widening and resurfacing has, however, been taken with several large trees re-

A FEW THINGS YOU'LL NEVER SEE

A local lady was rummaging through an old recipe book and came across these observations which she penned many years ago. A Winnipeg resident then, she sent them to the Tribune and they were published under the nom-de-plume Old Observer. Years later, she was surprised to find them in another publication which had apparently recopied the item from the Tribune.
