Fifth Game Tonight In Lacrosse Playoffs

The Okawaken - Georgetown intermediate lacrosse series is still tied. Each team has won two games, and tonight's fixture in Georgetown arena will be a very important one, for it will give the winner a definite edge in the 4-of-7 series.

The sixth game is slated for Okawaken Saturday. Should a seventh game be necessary, the team which has massed the highest goal total in the series will have it as a home game. Okawaken would probably get the nod in this case, for they have a lead of 17 in total goals to date.

The N&Gs were much superior in the game here last Wednesday. They amassed 8 goals in the first two periods, while holding the visitors scoreless. Final score was 13-7. Local scoring was well dispersed among the team, with Beaumont and Wilson getting two apiece, and singles by B. Louth, Savage, Malloy, McCandless, Bennett, Hillson, Joe Caruso, Evans, Alexander.

Okawaken came back with a real upset victory Saturday and when the smoke of battle cleared, emerged the winner with an imposing 21-6 total. E. Harris equalled Logan's feat of last week in scoring 7 goals, while Logan picked up another 5 Hillson and Caruso registered twice each for Georgetown, Beaumont and McCandless got the other goals.

Country Music Night Aids Swimming Pool

Over three hundred cars plus many other people who came on foot, thronged Georgetown Park Friday for a Country Music Night planned by the Lions Club to raise funds for the community swimming pool. Net proceeds will amount to some $150 for the pool.

Earl Scott and the Blue Valley Boys, popular entertainers from Limehouse were the feature attraction, and they had lined up a show which wowed fans appreciated. Among the talent was a youthful square dance set from Bell's School, the five Dilobough Sisters who are appearing at the CNE this week, Chuck Fortuac and the Chuck Wagon Ramblers from Toronto, the York County Boys and Tiny Jim Hopkins.

So successful was the party that another similar show is being planned in September.
