Public School Enrolment Boosted by Over 100

Enrolment at the two Georgetown public schools has increased by over one hundred since school was dismissed for the summer vacation.

The schools opened yesterday, with overflow classes being accommodated in St. John's church hall, the fire hall and the auditorium of Wrigglesworth School.

A Grade 5 is housed in the fire hall, while a combined Grade 4 and 5 is being taught for the present in the church hall. The two Wrigglesworth classes will move to the new school wing when it is completed later this fall.

ON INDEPENDENCE DAY, July 4 this year members of the Ontario Dept. of Highways' Old Fort Henry Guard, took part in the United States Marine Corps' ceremonies marking unveiling of the impressive two Jimo battle memorial.
