ERRY, BANDSMEN FITTED BY ERROR

Carefully compiled list of Lorne Band members who brought the prize home from the CNE, was found in a recent Herald. Fortunately in the typesetting the bass section were omitted and the list after the page was corrected.

Long and Arthur Herbert of town and Charles Kingsmill, Acton. The editor's face was particularly red because it was Mr. Herbert who helped compile the list and who gave us all the information about the competition.

Your safest way is by taxi.

RETURNS TO QUEEN'S FOR THIRD SEMESTER

Thelma Hunter, who is entering her third year at Queen's University in the Arts & Physical & Health Education course, has returned to her studies.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hunter accompanied her to Kingston.

DESSERT LUNCHEONS PLANNED BY LADIES

At an executive meeting of Halton Presbytery Women's Association held in St. Paul's United Church, Milton, September 12th, it looks like a busy fall season for members of this United Church organization.

There is to be a series of dessert luncheons in three charges: Oakville,

Paul's, Milton, Sept. 28. Each is called for 1:30 p.m. with a short musical program and a silver collection. The fall rally is to be held in Cooksville United Church on Thursday, October 20th at 8:00 a.m.

Service that can't be beat when you call TR. 7-2596.

THREE BROTHERS ARMY AT ENGLISH AIRPORT

When Col. Len Tennant arrived at Croydon Airport on Saturday, en route for army service in Germany, he was met by his brothers Bill and Bernard, both of whom are residents of England.

The brothers had three hours together before Col. Tennant continued to his destination.
