TERRA COTTA SYRIAN COSTUME FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL TALK

Professor R. M. Saunders of the University of Toronto gave an interesting and enlightening talk to the Terra Cotta Sunday School September 25th. Appearing in Syrian costume, he described life in that country.

He was introduced by Dr. E. Jacquith, who teaches the Bible class. Dorothy Von Zuben sang a solo and Donny Carr and Barbara Donovan recited the books of the old and new testaments. Mrs. Jacquith was pianist.

INFORMAL "GET TOGETHER" FOR TWO SCHOOL STAFFS

Teachers on the Chapel Street and Wrigglesworth staffs welcomed new teachers at an informal party after school on Monday.

The group went to the flats on the Lykle DeVries farm, where hot dogs and coffee were served during an hour of chatting.

Mackenzie News

Now is the time of year to look for a nice warm job inside and join the do-it-yourself crowd.

We can rent you the tools, sell you the material and advise you on laying a new floor, a new counter top, putting wallboard or plywood on, building new cupboards and many jobs.

In this district we have a box seat on nature's great Fall show.
