

Lorrimer Majuery Saturday Bridal

On Saturday, October 1st at 3 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, Dorothy Margaret Majuery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Majuery, 84 Guelph Street, became the bride of Benjamin Lorrimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorrimer, Glen Williams, in a double ring ceremony. Rev. A. J. Calder performed the ceremony and Mrs. Edna Gowland was the organist. The church was decorated with gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white net and lace over satin with lace bolero jacket coming to a lily point at the wrists. A finger tip veil fell from a tiara. Her flowers were a cascade of red roses.

Mrs. Harry Brandford acted as matron of honour. Miss Beth MacGillivray as bridesmaid. Marion Majuery, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. All the attendants were dressed alike in shrimp coloured ankle length gowns. They all carried yellow baby mums.

Barry Smith, Brampton, was groomsmen. Harry Brandford and Bud Varney were ushers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents which was beautifully decorated with gladioli, asters, snapdragons and dahlias. Mrs. Majuery received for her daughter wearing a navy dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For their honeymoon in the States the bride chose a fawn suit with white trim, taffy shoes and purse. White hat and gloves and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorrimer will make their home in Georgetown. Mr. Lorrimer is employed at Lane's Haulage and Mrs. Lorrimer at Copeland-Chat-terton Ltd., Brampton.

Guests attended from New Liskeard, North Bay, Parry Sound, Port Hope, Oshawa, Toronto, Brampton and Georgetown.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by George Hill

He did it again! Walt (Pickles) Wilson walked away with top honours at the Hard Times Dance last Friday night. His costume, to say the least, was original, imaginative and reasonably cohesive. He is a heterogeneous man and his facial undergrowth gave him a slight edge over his equally well-attired (or tired) opponent, Kerry Jepson. Sandra Ridley won the doubtful title of "Hard Times Queen". Pictures of all three will appear in next week's Herald.

Regarding the winners of the "spot" and elimination dances, we are, as usual, clueless. In the future, however, we will endeavour to get the names of said lucky people. Better still, if you want to know who wins what and why, we suggest you attend the dances and thus save the time-consuming effort reading this blurb.

Re the semi-formal this week. We don't know much more than last time, so we will just reward the first announcement and make it look like we have collected a wealth of new info. What is it? A semi-formal dance: meaning suits and dresses but not necessarily Penguin suits and corsages. Jeans will definitely not be allowed.

Where? Stewarttown Community Hall (on the Main Street).
When? 9 p.m., October 7th.
Music? Supplied by Doris Hulls' Orchestra, a well-known and popular local group.

Invitations? We were all wet on that member and member invitation business that we gave you last week, but we think it would be a good idea, to prevent a recurrence of the incident at the last dance. Those present will undoubtedly recall it and silently thank the one who prevent further disorder.

Jeff said "Well, that looks like it for this week, but before we go, we would like to express our appreciation to those who welcomed us back to 'the column.' It is gratifying to know that other than our relatives and paid critics read this trash."

See you at Club Midtown.

FOOTBALLERS WIN
GHS won 11-6 from the visiting Newmarket team in a football game at the park Monday. Dave Hart and Sandy Mackenzie scored touchdowns, for GHS, the former converting. It was a good match.

Mackenzie News

There'll be joy in Mudville (I mean Brooklyn) this week.

Do you require to renew a ceiling? The cost of the material is modest with gypoc at $1.80 for a 4x8 sheet. Donnacona plain costs $2.08 per sheet and Kokor koted is $2.40 per sheet. In 16x16 or 12x12 ceiling squares koler-koted the cost is 11c per square foot.

See you eating an apple on Saturday and doing both yourself and the Boy Scouts a good turn.
