Mr. and Mrs. C. Grimwood Mark 25th Anniversary

More than two hundred friends and relatives called at 46 Frederick St., Brampton, last Saturday afternoon and evening to bring congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Grimwood on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Callers were from Toronto, Buffalo, Thorold, Weston, Milton, Georgetown, Norval, and Willowdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood, who lived in Norval for fifteen years after their marriage in the Anglican Church in Weston, also made their home in Milton for seven years, and have lived in Brampton for the past two and a half years. Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood operated a barber shop and hairdressing salon in Norval, and when they moved to Milton they had a jewellery and gift shop as well as beauty parour. They now have a jewellery store in Brampton.

Mrs. Grimwood is the former Elsie Greenwood of Bar River, Ont. At the time of their marriage, a double wedding ceremony was performed, when Mrs. Greenwood's cousin, the former Ethel Greenwood, was married to Mr. George Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson who now live in Buffalo, N.Y. were present to celebrate the double happy occasion, with Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood.

Guests at the anniversary celebration were served tea and buffet lunch from "the bride's table" prettily decorated with white mums and pink carnations, white tapers in silver candelabra and centered with a wedding cake.

Miss Prairie Maguire and Mrs. J. E. Maxwell, of Norval presided at the tea table during the afternoon, and Mrs. Bert Palmer and Mrs. John Hughes of Georgetown poured tea for the evening callers. Tea assistants were Mrs. Eddie McLean, Norval, Mrs. Norma Hollis, Brampton, Miss Beedee Fleury, Miss Elizabeth Hollis, Mrs. Ed. Hignell and Mrs. Harry Haines, all of Brampton, and Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood's daughter, Janice.

IMPROMPTU DEBATE AT NORVAL JUNIOR FARMERS

An impromptu debate in which one half of the group argued for an electric stove while the other favoured a milking machine as a more necessary article of equipment for a young couple starting farming, was an amusing feature of Wednesday's Norval Junior Farmers meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Doug las Currie were hosts.

J. E. Whitelock, Halton agrep discussed the future of farming in the county with the boys at their meeting. He was introduced by president Herb Wilson.

Joan Wrigglesworth, girls' president, introduced Mrs. Percy Merry, of Hornby, who told about Halton's industries, particularly those in the Oakville district.

CLUB MIDTOWN

Last Thursday night, a meeting was held in the municipal office in an effort to reorganize the management and clarify the goals of Club Midtown. In all fifteen interested members showed up to nominate new executive and advise on future procedure. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Clifford Pound, one of the new town gendarmes, without whose help we would have been hopelessly lost.

Nominations and election of a new executive was the first matter to be discussed. Here are the results: President: your truly (due to a wrong count of hands); vice president Donna Bennett; secretary, Carole Seddon; treasurer Gail McGillivray.

Seven others were elected to head the various committees. Each committee head has the authority to conscript a maximum of three helpers to aid in the department's work. This is the set-up:

Records: Bob Tracey; door, Jean Engleby; Membership, Rhoda Dixon, Joan Jennings and Barbara Alcott; Decorations and Prizes: Sandra Bradley and Helen Muckart; Publications, Yours truly, aided by Sandra, Helen and Gail.

It was agreed that C-M should have four parent advisors to lend a stabilizing influence to the youthful decione advisor, and three others named are to be approached in the near future.

A constitution was drawn up by the new exec. (with much needed and appreciated help from Mr. Pound.) Said constitution shall be printed in this paper in the near future for all and sundry to read.

A regular meeting of the exec (and all interested members) will be held on the second Tuesday of each month. Time and place will be announced in this column.

New membership cards will be available around the first of November. Membership is not compulsory, but is greatly encouraged under the new regime.

By popular vote, a dance will be held this week, despite the Red Feather football game in Toronto, which will attract many of our members.

The prize winners at the last dance were Donna Bennett and Percy Mosop (spot dance) and Lorraine Garvin and Bob Kidd (statue dance). That reminds us, there has already been one complaint about the new management from Walt. He complains that he didn't win any prizes last week, and he naturally decided that this new group must be against him. Cheer up, Walt; there's another costume party coming up on the 28th of October (Halloween) wherein you can

HARVEST FAIR AN ORIGINAL IDEA

An original idea, a "Harvest Fair" held in Glen Williams by the Canon Wallace Guild on Saturday, October 15th, was a huge success. The hall was beautifully decorated for harvest with all the vegetables and flowers in season, decorating was done by Betty Lucas and Elizabeth Ward. The fancy work, home baking, fish pond and various booths were well patronized. Mr. Jack Kemshead won the autographed quilt in the Silent Auction. The Guild would like to thank all those who helped make the fair such a success.

CHURCH AYPG GROUP HAS EUCHRE PARTY

Last Wednesday evening the AYPG held a euchre in the St. George's Club rooms. Some excellent games were played. The lady winners were: Mrs. C. Stoddart 1st; Mrs. Annie Ballantine 2nd. Due to the lack of ladies played the cards for the ladies and the winners in that order were: Mrs. Syd Robins 1st; Mrs. 2nd; Consolation prize, Mrs. 2nd.
