LOCAL ODD FELLOWS HEAR GRAND MASTER
Several members from the local Orion Lodge were among the guests of Credit District 33, when they met last Wednesday in the Oddfellows Hall in Brampton, to celebrate the visit of Grand Master George Harrison, of Kincardine.

Approximately 150 members and friends were present for the visit and to enjoy the turkey dinner which was prepared by the Rebekahs of the Golden Star Lodge of Brampton.

The grand master gave a brief description of his many visits and tours around the province, in his capacity as head of the Odd Fellows of Ontario. Several other distinguished members of the order gave short speeches on the duties of the members towards each other, and to the citizens of the country at large.

Pleasure was added in the form of entertainment by Mary Elizabeth Gill and her accordion.
