I.O.D.E. Fund Campaign
Raises $1200 for Blind

The most successful campaign for funds to aid the Canadian National Institute for the Blind ever held in Georgetown and Glen Williams, has culminated in the raising of $1217.02 for this worthy cause. The Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE, under the convener'ship of Mrs. Percy Leslie, conducted a house to house canvass in Georgetown assisted by a committee from Glen Williams, during the past few weeks.

Of the total amount donated Georgetown citizens gave $1145.72 and Glen Williams residents contributed $72.20.

In addition to the canvass, IODE members sponsored a booth at the Georgetown Fair selling Blindcraft products, and raised a further $190 for the blind in this way. Mrs. Bob Reichardt, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, Mrs. J. Gillis, Mrs. Robert Jones and Mrs. Percy Leslie served in the booth.

Mr. Dick Licata of the Halton Advisory Board for the Institute for the Blind, and Mr. Jim Jones mapped out the campaign for the IODE canvassers.

The district captains were: Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. Bert Gilmer, Mrs. Sam Mackenzie, Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth, Mrs. James Evans, Mrs. Ruth Evans, Mrs. Ron Kitchin, Mrs. E. E. Hall, Mrs. W. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Leslie Clark, Mrs. J. Gillis, Mrs. Albert Kershaw and Mrs. Bruce McCartney.

Canvassers who collected the donations included: Mrs. Phyllis Lloyd, Mrs. Lorne Cove, Mrs. Hil Hamilton, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, Mrs. Val Stein, Mrs. Sam Penrice, Mrs. Graham Farrell, Mrs. Jack Hart, Miss Alice Treanor, Mrs. Frank Black, Mrs. W. A. McGowan, Mrs. Wm. Fleming, Mrs. Ivan Hay, Miss Helen MacDonald, Mrs. Jack Armstrong, Mrs. William Clark, Miss Hilda Erwin, Mrs. Seward Wilson, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. Wallace Thompson, Mrs. Bob Reichardt.

The Glen Williams canvassers, organized by Mr. Jack Lucas, included George Sargent, Marie Reid, Art Norton, Bev Moody, Norman Falkey and Charlie Crawford.

Lifelong District Resident
Daniel McKechnie Dies

A lifelong resident of Ballinafad district, Daniel McKechnie, 74, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, last Wednesday. Although in failing health for the past two years, his death came suddenly and was unexpected by his family and friends.

Son of Alexander and Elizabeth Collins McKechnie, he was born in Erin Township and attended Peacock School. He was a member of Ballinafad United Church and was for several years a trustee of Clay Hill School before it became part of the Esquering school area.

He married Bessie Pearl Sinclair in 1914 and for the past 39 years they have farmed at Lot 30, concession 10, Esquering. Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Thomas Allan (Norman) of Georgetown, Mrs. Alex McDougall (Norman) of Hillsburgh and E. Dougall (Norman) of Hillsburgh and E. Dougall (Norman) of Hillsburgh and E. Dougall (Norman) of Hillsburgh.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane, Georgetown, assisted Mr. Gerald Townsend, minister of the Ballinafad church in conducting the funeral service on Friday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral home in town. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Six brothers in law acted as pallbearers: Ray McEnery, Fred, Gear, Stanley, Donald and Norman Sinclair.

Girls' Softball Team
Holds Dance, Euchre

Norval parish hall was appropriately decorated with bachelors hats, make believe baseball diamond, autumn leaves and Halloween lanterns, on Friday night, October 21st, when the Norval girls' softball team held a euchre and dance.

Winners for the fifteen tables of euchre in play were high score for ladies, Mrs. Sherring, 70, and low, Ruth Ismond, 30; high score for men, Joseph Norton, 59, and low, Earl Moffat 34. Rev. James Maxwell arranged the euchre playing.

The Brampton high school orchestra "The Jazz Lads" played for dancing. About 175 enjoyed the dancing and the refreshment booth where they could obtain sandwiches, hot dogs and coffee. Mrs. Gib Telford was in charge of the booth, with other members of the team assisting.

The committee in charge of the event included the manager of the team, Mr. Gib Telford, assisted by Marilyn Cunningham, Norma Murray, Jane Smellie, Nancy and Colleen Grady, Marlene Dixon and Jamie Cunningham.
