BALLINAFAD

Hostess in Town for Afternoon Auxiliary

The afternoon Auxiliary were invited to hold their October meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Ferguson in Georgetown. The worship service was led by Miss Young on the theme of "Our High Calling." Only a few of those who came to hear Jesus became faithful followers - the cost of "leaving-all to follow me" seemed too great for them. Jesus said to the faithful ones "Will you also go away?" The whole future of Christianity depended on their answer, Peter as usual answered for the group saying - "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." The roll call was answered with many fine thoughts on Thanksgiving. The topic from the study book "Coming Our Way" was in charge of Mrs. Kirkwood and told of the difficulties and hardships facing the immigrant coming into our country. The United Church is assisting with especially trained linguists and part workers also following up with visiting committees. On the average now one-out of every fifteen people in Canada are immigrants. Mrs. Warne gave a reading on Stewardship, stating that our material possessions are given to us as a trust and should be carefully invested in His service. Mrs. Ferguson served a delicious lunch to close a most enjoyable meeting.

Messrs. John Snow, Herb McEachern, Vic and Ray Swindlehurst left Sunday on a hunting trip to Northern Ontario.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson on the birth of their second little daughter on Sunday.

Birthday Parties for Three Youngsters

October gave a party, the leaves by hundreds came. How beautiful they have been in their orange, red and yellow colours, but they have nearly all fallen now. These days we feel like saying "Rain, Rain, Go Away, Come Again Some Other Day." Too much wet weather keeps the fall work from getting done.
Miss Melba Williamson of Guelph spent the week end with Bernice Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wigglesworth and Mr. and Mrs. James Carney and girls spent Sunday in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Mel McClean and baby. Birthday parties have been very fashionable for October. On Saturday evening, Sandra Tindale celebrated her fourteenth birthday with a party at her home and had a dozen school chums who all report a good time. On October 19th, Ellen Hunter celebrated her fifth birthday with 8 little guests and on October 26th Thelma Carney celebrated her fourth birthday with a little party.

We are sorry to hear that Ann Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barnes has been sick and under the doctor's care. Latest word is that she is improving and will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Mrs. George Wilson of Georgetown were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson and family in Preston on Sunday.

A number of our ladies attended the tea in Hornby Hall last Tuesday sponsored by the WMS of the United Church and all report a lovely afternoon was spent.

GLEN WILLIAMS

TUESDAY MEETING OF WILLING HELPERS

Ladies of the Willing Helpers of Glen United Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Engleby with Mrs. Bill Everson as co-hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed O'Brien and Mrs. John R. Scott visited in Toronto on Sunday with another daughter of Mrs. Scott.

A number of Glen residents are planning to attend the turkey supper in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe and Danny were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walters, Woodbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Preston and children spent Sunday in town with his parents.

Sympathy of residents goes to Mr. John Wheeler and the family who were bereaved this week by Mrs. Wheeler's death.

W.I. ENTERTAINS AT VILLAGE MASQUERADE

On Hallowe'en night the Esqueung W.I. entertained over one hundred children and adults at a masquerade party in the community hall. Prizes for juniors were won by Tommy Bradley, Indian; Linda Walker, a nose; Mary Louise Armstrong, little squaw; Betty Mae Mileham, bride; Chris Cannon, hobo.

Those receiving prizes in the senior class were David Smith, Black Mammy; Ruth Thompson, farmer; Audrey McClean, Red Sox.

The judges were Mr. and Mrs. Lorne From and Mrs. Harvey Copeland. Mr. From showed cartoons on the movie projector. After a "scramble" a lovely lunch was served which was enjoyed very much by everyone.

The Junior WA meeting was held last week at Mrs. Baily's home. Susan Smith chose "Holy, Holy, Holy," for the opening hymn and conducted the worship service. Judy Walker presented the Friday pledge: The Chinese and Japanese Kindergartens in British Columbia. A story was read from the Juniors' Living Message. "Your mind is a store room" and some of the things that are stored. 1, whatsoever things are true; 2, whatsoever things are honest; 3, whatsoever things are just; 4, whatsoever things are lovely; 5, whatsoever things are of good report; think on these things." Penny song and offertory hymn. Baby clothes were sewed on in the busy period. The meeting closed with the vespers hymn and "The Grace" in unison.

Service of Holy Communion at St. John's Church next Sunday. The first Sunday of the month at 9.30 a.m.

PLAN AUDIO-VISUAL
MEETING IN GUELPH

Under the co-sponsorship of Miss Betty Langille, director of religious education in St. Thomas Anglican Church, St. Catharines, and chairman of the visual aids committee of Niagara diocese, an audio-visual aid institute is being held at St. George's Church, Guelph, next Wednesday evening.

There will be dinner at 6 p.m. and the main discussion periods begin at 7.30. Miss Langille will be assisted by Miss Kathleen Gaw who is manager of the visual aids department of the Anglican Publishing House in Toronto. Miss Janet White of the same department will be the projectionist.
