Top Golfing Trophy Presented Ken Nash

Presentation of the club championship trophy to Ken Nash was made by Larry Edwards, North Halton Golf and Country Club pro, at a dinner following a Saturday field day for members.

Mr. Nash, of the plumbing and heating firm of Nash and McDowell, won top golfing honours when he defeated Jim Linton, last year's champion, in match play several weeks ago. Mr. Nash also won the ringer score prize.

Bank of Commerce manager Jack Hart presented the bank trophy to Ted Fleming, who won the consolation round in the club playoffs.

John R. Barber presented a trophy given by himself to the winner of B Flight, J. G. (Gob) Collier. Mr. Edwards presented the Willoughby Trophy to Ted Bludd, winner of low net.

There was a large turnout of members, who dodged showers during the day to play their rounds. Among those who won prizes were Stewart Young, Thomas Adams trophy for low net on 9 holes; Bill Latimer, the gravestone competition; Jack Malcolm, putting; Bill Anderson, longest drive and Trev Williams, shortest drive.

John Bell, vice president of the club, officiated for the election of officers for 1966. Gob Collier is the new captain, succeeding William McNally. Other officers who will serve with Mr. Collier are Don Barrager, vice captain; Lorne Cross, secretary-treasurer; and Ken Nash, handicap committee chairman.

Mrs. E. W. Binkley and Mrs. Arthur Beaumont headed a committee of lady members who arranged and served dinner for the golfers following their afternoon's play. A pleasant feature of the evening was presentation of a cheque to Bill Young, who had an unfortunate accident while helping to install the sprinkling system for the greens early in the summer and broke his leg. Members have been conducting a lucky draw for his benefit and Hugh Dickie presented him with the cheque after Mr. Young had drawn the winning tickets. Paul Corbell won the $50 first prize and Bill Hamilton a caddy cart which was second prize.

J. Graham Takes Lead In Industrial Bowling

Racking up an excellent 736 triple last week, J. Graham boosted his average to 236 to take over leadership in the Big Ten of the industrial bowlers, ousting Trev Williams who has held this honour for several weeks.

Mr. Williams is second with an average of 232. Others following are Bill Anderson 223; Bill Korzack 217; Nip Shipway 216; George Barber 214; H. Chaplin 212; Frank Anderson 212; Joe Hall 208; Jack Saunders 207.

Jack Dempster had the best single score of 343 last week. Other top bowlers included George Brandford 330; A. Ritchie 325; O. Herrington 318; G. Webster 291; B. Chaplin 289; G. Collier 284.

Triple honours went to George Webster with 815 and O. Herrington 768. Other good triples, J. Ingles 756; A. Ritchie 743; J. Graham 736; G. Brandford 732; Jim Hiddleston 725.

Season's leaders remained unchanged: No one has yet equalled the 842 scored by Trev Williams and J. Long in triples, or the 353 top single of Bill Chaplin.

Mrs. Patton's Father Remembered in Town

A resident of Georgetown for ten years, where he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. James Patton, Arthur Payne, 78, died October 24th at Blackstock, Ontario, at the home of his son James.

Mr. Payne was the son of William and Sarah Payne and was born in Surrey, England. He lived in Toronto after he came to Canada in 1911, then moved to Georgetown where he lived with the Pattons on Market St. Mr. and Mrs. Patton moved to Waterloo this fall.

Mr. Payne was a member of the Anglican Church. Youngest member of a family of seven, he was the last surviving member of the family. His wife, Jane Ann Gordon died in 1944 and two sons Raymond and Morris also predeceased him.

Surviving are four children, Mrs. H. Mitchell (Florence) and Albert of Toronto, James of Blackstock and Mrs. James Patton (Nellie) of Waterloo; and 13 grandchildren.

Rev. Nicholson, rector of the Blackstock Anglican Church conducted the funeral service in Port Perry last Wednesday and interment was in Pine Hills Cemetery, Toronto. Pallbearers were George, Donald, Leslie

GLEN WILLIAMS INVITE NORVAL CHOIR TO HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Couples' Club of Glen Williams United Church held a Halloween party on Wednesday, October 26th with Norval Choir as their guests. A number of couples came in costume. Prizes for the best costumes were won by — 1st Miss Norma Murray, dressed as an old woman; 2nd Mr. Bert Dixon, who came as Aunt Jemima; 3rd Mrs. Clark Lyons, dressed as a mandarin; 4th Mrs. John Wagstaffe as a private in the army.

Entertainment was as follows. Rev. E. Gill told a very interesting story. Mrs. Gill gave a song and musical game. Mrs. Kay Hancock had a "get acquainted" game. Mrs. Wagstaffe gave a recitation. Mrs. Laidlaw and Mrs. Lyons sang a duet. Mrs. Barth a reading. Mrs. Isobel Norton sang and Miss Joyce McLean sang two songs.

Refreshments were served after the entertainment and enjoyed very much. Our thanks go to all who took part in the program.

Mr. Clark Lyons thanked the club on behalf of the Norval choir for a pleasant evening.

and Harvey Johnston, Kitchener Burton and Lowell Falls.
