

News Notes From the Wigglesworth School

Kindergarten
Mrs. Ellsborough, Teacher
A busy week for everyone — we made a wall chart for Halloween, also pumpkins, ghosts, masks and fancy bags to hold 'shelling out' gifts. Free dramatization of Halloween rhymes and music completed this theme. A good time was had by all.

Grade 3
Mrs. M. Cleave, Teacher
The witches and ghosts have invaded our room. Some of the witches are flying through the air on their broomsticks. A few of them have a blazing fire under the big black pot. The ghosts are out hunting children for the witches' stew pot. Now we will tell you a secret. We made all the ghosts and witches out of paper. They are in a Halloween scene on the bulletin board. Michael Hunter has been away for a week. He has German Measles.

Grade 4
Miss Hall, Teacher
Grade 4 pupils are unhappy to know that two of our best pupils are leaving us. Paul Knight is our star baseball batter, and Jean Kovacs has been very willing to assist us in any project. They are our finest artists. Our good wishes are with Jean as she goes to Hillsburgh, and with Paul as he leaves for Waterloo. As we have been burdened by examinations this week we were relieved to learn that the teachers were having their convention on Friday.

Grade 6
Mrs. A. Guizdala, Teacher
We now have a sidewalk in front of the school. We had a visit from a dog from the Cedalevale Girls School which Bob Hyde had to walk back. We also started our examinations on Thursday, October 27th.

Grade 7
Mr. H. Catling, Teacher
We are all very sorry to see Iona Kovacs leaving us for her new home in Hillsburgh. This week we started making our masks out of asbestos. Our class is extremely disappointed since there is no school on Friday (teacher's convention.) We had a spelling exam this week to begin our term tests.

Grade 8
Mr. W. Kinrade, teacher
We, the pupils of Mr. Kinrade's room are in the midst of examinations for our first report of this term. We made puppet heads on Monday, the best of which are to be cast in plaster of paris. Their countenances are weird and extraordinary. We are sorry to lose Carol Kovacs who is moving to Hillsburgh, this week. We wish her happiness in her new school. Carol is a very hard worker.

LIMEHOUSE

Community Sympathy as Two Families Bereaved

We extend sympathy to the Lindsay family, whose mother, Mrs. J. R. Lindsay, aged 84, was buried at Limehouse on Tuesday. Also to the Gordon family in the sudden death of Mrs. Wm. Gordon, following a stroke on Monday evening.

The Karns visited a brother at London last week-end.

Mrs. Gilbert Sinclair spent the week at Weston.

The Nobles visited Mrs. Orr and PC Calvin and Mrs. Van Zant at Port Credit on Sunday evening.

Twenty seven ladies including several from Georgetown attended the fall thankoffering of the WMS held at the home of Mrs. Benton on Thursday evening, when Mrs. A. S. Carr, synodical president was guest speaker. She said that the mission is for all the church not just one group of women. We are all either missionaries or a mission field. Although we are not free to go to far off fields we are in the work everyday through our support of the missionaries actively engaged, through our investment in the help and through our cooperation with other denominations. She asked us if we met Christ face to face if we could tell him that we had given all we had. Mrs. Benton introduced the speaker and she was thanked by Mrs. Smethurst.

Scripture was read by Mrs. Sanford and Miss Ivens led in prayer. Mrs. E. Karn, accompanied by Mrs. Roughley sang "Open My Eyes" and Neil Benton obliged with a piano solo. It was decided to sell Prayer calendars again this year. An invitation to attend Georgetown's thankoffering meeting on November 9th was received. Following the Lord's Prayer in union a social hour was enjoyed.

WINTER FAIR OPENS
ON NOVEMBER 11th

J. E. W.

It is hard to realize that the 1955 Royal, opens on Nov. 11th — just about a week away. The Royal is a tremendous spectacle. Even though one is not interested in livestock, poultry, grain, fruit and vegetables, dogs and what have you, it is worthy of a visit. Why? Well, in our opinion the flower show in itself, is sufficient. Others, judging by the number of inquiries we receive each year, look forward to the great horse show. They want tickets and how are they to get them? The seats are normally all sold out in advance, so if you want to see the 1955 programme, it is time to get busy. If it is not convenient to go down to the Coliseum personally, then perhaps you will be interested in learning that John Black, 79 Colborne St. E., in Oakville, is in a position to sell you reserved seats. We do not know how many seats are available.

WEAR A POPPY
The Poppy Committee this Saturday will be asking people on the street and at their homes to buy a poppy. Purchase of these serves a double purpose. Wearing of poppy signifies remembrance of those who died in their country's service. And in a practical way it raises funds to help war veterans and their families, while providing gainful employment also for handicapped vets.
