Mrs. Percy Clark Dies Suddenly

A resident of Georgetown and district since emigrating from England in 1921, Mrs. Percy Clark, 68, died suddenly at her home on November 9. Mr. and Mrs. Clark would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary next September.
 Formerly Annie Truman, she was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Gill Truman and was born in Harrogate, England. She was a member of the Anglican Church. She was employed for several years at Smith & Stone, Ltd.
 Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. A. Ambeau (Gertrude) and Mrs. F. Quale (Elsie), and a son Thomas, 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; and two sisters and one brother, who live in Harrogate.
 The funeral service on Saturday at the Harold C. McClure funeral home was conducted by Rev. Evan Jones of Acton. Pallbearers were Fred Tucker, Joe Hall, Sr., Percy Chaplin, James Murphy, Charlie Day and Clarence Spencer. Interment was in Glen Williams Cemetery.

Interested Outsider Gives Tips to Swim Canvasers

A gentleman who had no connection with Georgetown other than having a good friend living here but who had read the many write ups in the Herald became so interested in the campaign for the swimming pool that he came and offered his valuable time and experience to help, on Friday afternoon at the Rose Room, when he addressed the campaign committee canvasers and captains.
 He stressed the idea of one's responsibility to the community in which he lives, that we have our homes, our friends, and expect to bring up our family in the community, and we should feel a responsibility to that

Moddison-Cox Nuptials At St. George's Church

The marriage of Kathleen Cox to Wilbur Moddison, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moddison, of Cheltenham, was solemnized by Rev. David Powell of Grace Anglican Church, Milton, in St. George's, Georgetown, on Saturday afternoon, November 12th. Mrs. W. F. Bradley played the organ, and the bride's uncle, Mr. Thomas Warnes sang "O Lord Most Holy" before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.
 The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law Ronald Jones of New Toronto, wore a ballerina length bouffant gown of white satin. The full skirt fell from a molded bodice embroidered with pearls and sequins. A sequin cap held her fingertip length veil of tulle illusion. She carried a bouquet of rose and pink carnations, and wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.
 Mrs. Ronald Jones of New Toronto, was matron-of-honour for her sister. She chose a walk-length gown of royal blue taffeta, with matching feather hat, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds. Mr. Bill Wilkinson of Cheltenham was the groomsmen.
 At the wedding reception held at the Yellow Briar, Brampton, Mrs. Thomas Warnes received the guests for her niece, wearing a dress of black and charcoal brocaded satin, black accessories and a corsage of carnations and roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Moddison, who chose a navy dress, gold-coloured hat and gold chrysanthemum corsage.
 For a motor trip through the U.S., the bride changed to a charcoal grey dress with angora trim, topcoat of charcoal grey and pink, and black accessories. When they return, Mr. and Mrs. Moddison will live at Cheltenham where the groom farms with his parents.

Church Club Banquet At Terra Cotta Inn

Thirty-two members of the 50-50 Club of St. John's United Church attended their annual banquet which was held last Wednesday at Terra Cotta Inn. A delicious turkey dinner was enjoyed.
 At the conclusion of dinner, Mr. Blair Armstrong spoke a few words of thanks to the executive for their efforts in making the banquet such a success.
 Everyone joined in a social time afterwards in the banquet room of the Inn, when Henri Hansen favored with several solos, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James Evans. A sing-song and dancing to records was enjoyed. A pleasant feature of the evening was a surprise birthday cake to honour Mrs. Blair Armstrong on her birthday.
 Before the gathering broke up, Mrs. James Evans expressed the thanks of the members to the executive for their work during the past year.
