$85.00 Realized For Swimming Pool
At Esqueing Agricultural Society Euchre

Through the efforts of the directors of Esqueing Agricultural Society, $85 was netted for the Georgetown Swimming Pool fund at a euchre party in Stewarttown Hall on Friday evening. Twenty seven tables were in play, and a substantial sum was raised in addition for the fund when tickets were sold on a hamper of groceries.

Euchre prize winners were — ladies Miss Mamie Campbell, Kay Foster and Mrs. Tasker; gents R. S. Leslie, Edgar Lyons and Val Stein. Prizes had been donated by Benton's Store, Limhouse; Kirkwood's Hardware, Norval; Ovenette Bakery, Reta's, Thompson's Hatchery and Wilson's Grocery, Stewarttown.

Following lunch served by the lady directors, a fine program was presented with president Harding Price as chairman. Rev. Alex Calder sang a solo. Mrs. W. Cromar gave a reading and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shortill sang a duet. Don Barrager, chairman of the Swimming Pool campaign committee was on hand to receive the donation, and expressed his appreciation to organizations helping in this big project.

Mrs. Doug Maplesden Bereaved of Mother
The funeral of Lucy Gregory, wife of Frank C. Rawlings, was held at the Rofley funeral home, Acton, on Tuesday, October 25th.
Mrs. Rawlings was born in Sedelgy, Staffordshire, England, in 1879 and came to Canada in 1910. She was married in Winnipeg in 1912 and made her home for over 40 years in Acton. Early this year, Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings left Acton to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. D. C. Maplesden in Guelph. Mrs. Rawlings had the misfortune to fracture her leg while at church on October 1st and she died on October 23rd at Guelph General Hospital.
A quiet woman, she was mainly interested in her home and family. She was a member of Knox Presbyterian church and of the Ladies Aid. She was the last surviving member of her family.
She is survived by her husband and daughters, Bessie (Mrs. D. C. Maplesden), Vera (Mrs. W. E. Mattocks), and Frances (Mrs. H. W. Cargo). A son, Charles William, died in infancy. She is also survived by eight grandchildren, Anne, John, Mary, Joan and Joan Maplesden, Keith and Michael Mattocks and Susan and Kathryn Cargo. Rev. R. H. Armstrong conducted the services and he was assisted by Rev. Kenneth McMillan of St. Andrew's Church, Guelph.
The pallbearers were William Coon.

"PROVIDENCE HAS GIVEN US HOPE"
(Author's name below)
There is now no reason why you should fear any possible illness. Modern medicine can give some relief for any ailment, and in most cases has the knowledge to effect a cure.
Most important is the fact that physicians are daily learning more about how to prevent sickness. There is, "Hope," that in our time, serious diseases will occur only to those who neglect visiting their physicians for regular check-ups. If you will consult him at the first sign of any illness, he can help you to get well quicker.
