Remembrance Banquet At Canadian Legion

The Legion auditorium, freshly painted for the occasion, and with new drapes and curtains for the stage, was the scene of the annual, and much looked for, Remembrance banquet. To add to the appearance of the place, decorations of paper flowers were tastefully arranged throughout the rooms, with two huge baskets of artificial flowers, decorating each end of the stage.

The guests sat down to an excellent turkey dinner, in charge of Mrs. Thomas Warnes, who with her ladies did a wonderful job of catering for the near-250 people gathered there.

The chairman for the evening, Les Clark, opened the evening by asking that those present sing Grace. After the toast to her majesty, The Queen, was proposed by Lt.-Col. Gordon Cousens, M.C. The dinner concluded, head table guests were introduced, including Mayor and Mrs. John T. Armstrong, LeRoy Dale, Q.C.; Bob Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hall, M.P.P.; Reeve Wilford and Mrs. Bird, president Harvey Garvin, Auxiliary president Mrs. Alex Taylor and Mr. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cousens, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCartney. Unfortunately one of the guests of honour, the branch chaplain Rev. Kenneth Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, were unable to be present owing to the sudden passing of his mother the previous day. Rev. Alex Calder and Mrs. Calder were also head table guests, and Rev. Calder carried out Mr. Richardson's duties.

The introductions completed, the chairman said that tonight it was his great pleasure to preside at the gift of a memorial plaque from honorary president, Mr. LeRoy Dale. He said that Mr. Dale had been a constant friend of the Legion and its members down through the years, and this was only one of many fine things he had done. Mr. Dale then opened the curtains unveiling, a very beautiful, and unusual plaque. After its dedication by the Rev. Alex Calder, and a prayer, president of the Legion, Harvey Garvin, in a few well chosen remarks, thanked the donor for his magnificent gift.

The toast to "Our Fallen Comrades" was made by a past president, Fred McCartney, and all raised a silent tribute to those who had paid the supreme sacrifice, and also those who had since passed away. The next toast was that to "The Canadian Legion" by Mayor John T. Armstrong, who paid tribute to this organization in glowing terms, citing many of the accomplishments in the past and the pleasure it had been for him, in his own small way, to work in such close connection with this great organization. Deputy zone commander Les Clark replied on behalf of the Legion, saying that Mayor Armstrong had proven himself on many occasions as a firm, staunch friend of the Legion in his years as chief magistrate, and that he knew that the mayor was sincere in his remarks about the Legion. The ladies were thanked by Comrade Jim Yates for their very excellent banquet, and he paid tribute to the very willing work of the ladies involved. Mrs. Warnes replied for the ladies. Mr. Dale then explained his reasons for giving the plaque to the Legion, and spoke briefly on his associations with the group. He wished them all the best in the future. President Harvey Garvin thanked everyone for their cooperation in the past year, and reminded them of the parade on Sunday for Remembrance Day.

Mr. Dale then spoke for a few moments, saying with a genuine pleasure it had been to be associated with the Legion, and he hoped that the gift was liked, as it had given him great pleasure to do it. He said he was sorry his law partner, Miss Sybil Bennett, who had always been one of the Legion's greatest supporters, was not present to help him unveil it, but unfortunately she was absent, due to illness.

At the conclusion of the banquet, entertainment was provided by Vince Mouniford and the two Kegans, who put on a splendid performance. The evening was concluded with dancing to the Debonaires.

SILVER-WOOD
Tours Dale's Greenhouses

As the November meeting of the Silver-Wood Women's Institute was Agriculture and Canadian Industries, it had been arranged that members meet in Brampton. Fifteen ladies were conducted through part of the vast Dale Estate greenhouses and much enjoyed the hour's tour. They were told about the 360 acres covered by greenhouses, over 20 million cut blooms produced annually under glass of the roses, carnations, mums, etc. shipped all over the world, also many other flowers and they were fascinated by acres of growing plants. The display of plants being prepared for the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto was particularly fascinating — many particularly plants such as cyclamen, African violets and caladium, in all of its many beautiful colours. The boiler room and refrigeration plant held great interest also.

When leaving the plant the ladies were presented with a box of roses, and they came back to their meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Russell Miller on the 8th Line. In the absence of Mrs. Harry Marchington who is ill, Mrs. W. R. Norton took the chair, roll call was answered by the members naming their favourite flower; Mrs. Norton welcomed a new member, Mrs. Clara Wilson. Knitted articles were brought to the meeting to be added to the two layettes which are now almost completed for the Children's Aid. Used warm clothing was also brought and a bale will soon be packed and sent to Dr. Hachmanova for use in Korea. Plans were made for the Extension Service "An ounce of Prevention" to be held in December. Mrs. Bert Corbett then took charge of the meeting and called on Mrs. Ann Lindauer for current events, a flower poem was read by Mrs. R. Corbett and the province of the month, Ontario was taken by Mrs. D. Peck. This paper was particularly good and brought to light many details of our own province which may have been forgotten. At least nine members of this community are attending night school classes in Georgetown, taking such subjects as millinery, rug making, interior decorating, and wood finishing and upholstery. A social half hour was enjoyed, Mrs. Miller being assisted by Mrs. George Burt and Mrs. Don Lindsay.
