Sidewalk Contractor William Robinson Dies

Member of the firm of William Robinson and Sons which is presently constructing sidewalks on the highway and in other parts of town, William R. Robinson, 71, died suddenly at Guelph General Hospital on Sunday.

Mr. Robinson had been in the contracting business for fifty years and was still an active member of the firm which he operated with his sons J. H. and W. J. The latter died a year and a half ago.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. F. Patek, Hamilton, and Mrs. J. Ross, Guelph, his son, John, and two sisters, Mrs. H. Leffler, Guelph and Mrs. T. Reid, Waterloo.
The funeral service was held this afternoon in Guelph.

Make Own Articles For Handicraft Bazaar

Last Saturday evening the Girl Guides of Norval held a Handicraft Bazaar and tea at the home of Mrs. Robert Crawford. For several months the girls have been busy making stuffed animals, felt corages and Christmas corsages for their handicraft period of their meetings for sale at this bazaar. The sale was well attended and everyone praised the skill and initiative of the girls.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP CONDUCT CHURCH SERVICE

The Young People of St. John's United Church took the service last Sunday evening. Douglas Wrigglesworth was in charge of the service. Judy McCumber led in prayer, Marilyn Souther, Gail King, and Bill Whitney spoke very ably on the "Young People's Convention" and how it affects the group in St. John's. Eleanor Schenk was the guest soloist. Sandra Scott and Leanne Darou sang a duet. The Young People handled the service very capably and it was a most enjoyable and enlightening service.

SOFTBALL CLUB HAS EUCHRE AND DANCE

On November 11th the Norval Girls softball club held a euchre and dance in the Norval Hall. About 150 attended. Mrs. J. Murray won first prize for ladies in euchre, Mrs. Moffat second; Mr. George Ching first for gentlemen and Mr. Percy Donaldson second.
Mrs. Betty Sherring and Mrs. R. Richardson won prizes in the spot dance. The door prize, donated by Mr. Pallet of Norval was won by Mr. Ken Richardson of Norval. A delicious lunch was served.
