

GLEN WILLIAMS

Mrs. John Garvin, 76
Dies In Glen Williams

Rev. Kenneth Richardson conducted a funeral service on Thursday at the home of the late Mrs. John A. Garvin, 76, who died in Glen Williams on Tuesday.

Mrs. Garvin, who was formerly Mary Hill, was born in Nassagaweya Township and was the daughter of James and Margaret Cox Hill. Married at Terra Cotta in 1896, she had been a resident of the Glen for 57 years. She was a member of St. Alban's Anglican Church.

She leaves a family of five children, Howard, Harvey and Mrs. George Sargent (Erma) of Glen Williams, Gordon of Detroit and Mrs. Carl Kern (Marie) of Inglewood; 9 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren; and brothers and sisters James and Katharine Hill, Glen Williams and Jack Hill, Guelph. She was predeceased by her husband in 1944 and by two sons, Freddie and Roy, and three brothers, William, Albert and Chester Hill.

Funeral services at the funeral were Charles and Kenneth Hill, Carman Copland, Gerald and Harold Ingles and Robert Heaton. Interment was in Glen Williams Cemetery.

MISSION LADIES PLAN
CANDLELIGHT SERVICE

Mrs. H. Hills was hostess for the November meeting of the W.M.S. The worship service was led by the president, Miss Hills, and showed that the standards set by Jesus for Christians to live by were high and exacting. Roll Call was answered by naming a church mentioned in Revelations. It was planned to hold a candlelight service the Sunday evening before Christmas.

The topic told of the work our missionaries are doing among the Indians across Canada. The United Church ministers to Indians in almost every province in the Dominion. Miss Young read a temperance item showing that liquor is responsible for most of the traffic accidents, family troubles and tragedies. Neglect of children by drinking parents has caused many deaths amongst them. This drinking of alcohol is one of the darkest blot on our fair country. The meeting closed with singing and prayer.

The W.A. held a successful bazaar on Saturday afternoon. The apron booth, and home baking table were well patronized and all enjoyed a social time over the tea cups.

Nomination meeting in the Library tomorrow night.

Monday evening the Georgetown Business and Professional Women's Club held their regular dinner meeting in St. George's Church basement. The Daughters of the Church catered to a lovely dinner for them. Jim Jones, a member of the Community Swimming Pool Committee spoke to the meeting. Lt. Col. John R. Barber showed a travel film on the British Isles and British West Indies which was most informative and beautiful.

During the business portion of the meeting several projects were discussed and it was decided to look into them thoroughly before going any further, however it was passed that the Club, give its support to the swimming pool.

The club received an invitation to the dinner meeting of the Guelph club on December 5th. The meeting closed with the Creed.
