Oakville, Burlington Have Top Public Speakers

Public speaking honours in the county went this year to public school girls in Oakville and Burlington, when the finals were held in Milton on Thursday.

The contest is sponsored by Halton Principals' Association, and this year Harold Henry, principal of Chapel St. School was chairman.

Pamela Caine, Oakville, was presented with the Halton Women's Institute cup by Mrs. Chesler Service after her speech had been judged best. Sylvia Moore, Burlington, who placed second, was presented with a dictionary by Frank Connelley, principal of Maple Grove School, which was awarded by Halton Teachers Institute.

Ten districts were represented in the contest, and all contestants were winners in their preliminaries. They came from Oakville, Trafalgar and Bronte Urban, Nassagaweya and Nelson rural, Trafalgar rural, Nelson urban, Esqueving rural, North Halton urban, Burlington, Burlington Separate School and Milton Separate School.

Contestants representing North Halton were Peter Forgrave, Georgetown and Randy Lidka, Acton. Esqueving was represented by Patricia Norton, Glen Williams and Bob Merry, S. S. 2.

Judges on Thursday were Rev. Kenneth Richardson, Georgetown, Mr. Coggins of Burlington High School and Miss Quail, Oakville High School.

MR. AND MRS. MOLOZZI HONOURED BY FRIENDS

A presentation was held at Woodside school recently for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Molozzi who recently sold their farm on the fourth line of Erin and have moved to their new home at Silvercreek.

Enchire was played and after a short program with J. A. Locker acting as chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Molozzi were called to the front. Charles Binnie read the address and John Lightle Jr. presented them with an automatic toaster. Both Mr. and Mrs. Molozzi made fitting replies. Mr. Alvin Fisher and Mr. John Lightle Sr. were called on for speeches.

After lunch, a social hour was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Molozzi are parents of Mrs. John Cummins of town and Andrew, Jr., a GHS graduate now in England taking postgraduate engineering work at an English university.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane Women's Council Speaker

The regular meeting of the Local Council of Women was held at the home of Mrs. Annie Adams, Church Street last Friday.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane was the guest speaker and his theme was "Maturity which can be acquired through learning and not being slaves to custom." He stated that first one must study, secondly learn to love, thirdly work towards achievement in something that benefits most such as the hungry millions and the infiltration of communists. He suggested "Do noble things not dream them all day long."

The members kept two minute's silence in memory of the late Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie. Mrs. Nodwell paid tribute to her, speaking of her kindness and sympathy to all in need, and of her great work as a member and past president of the Local Council of Women.

The work of the Elizabeth Fry Society was discussed. This work is with girls in reform schools and the society endeavours to help them become established after serving a prison term.

The subject of jailing alcoholics as ordinary criminals was also discussed. It is felt that they should be treated for alcoholism while serving their sentences.

There will be no meeting of the Local Council of Women in December. The date and place of next meeting will be published later.

FARM NEWS

JOHN W. WILSON WINS BRETHOUR TROPHY

John W. Wilson, from near Haltonville, Nassagaweya Township, was the winner of the Brethour Challenge trophy at the recent Royal. This trophy is awarded annually for the best Wiltshire side at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. The trophy was donated by the late Joseph E. Brethour, who was a noted Yorkshire breeder near Burford. Mr. Brethour won this competition personally in the years 1934, 1935 and 1936.

Entries for this competition must be purebred barrows or sows, bred and owned by the exhibitor, from a nominated litter of any breed, of suitable weight and quality to make a Grade A carcass. In all, there were 26 entries in the class at this year's Royal, representing 17 different pure bred breeders. It was no small honor, won by Mr. Wilson for Halton County and Nassagaweya Township, in particular.

Don Moffat Also Wins High Honors

Another Nassagaweya resident who brought honours to the county was Don Moffat of the 1955 Royal, was Don Moffat of Campbellville, R. R. 1. In competition with 18 other exhibitors from Ontario, Manitoba and Quebec, he entered a hog in the Hog Carcass Competition for the S. E. Toad challenge trophy. Altogether there were 28 trophies in this class, and this was the first time for 15 year old Don to enter such a competition. The carcass from his hog was not only in the first prize group, but was placed next to the reserve champion side.

give an Extension Telephone all wrapped up and ready for the Christmas tree

This Christmas, why not give something different yet strictly practical - the time and step-saving convenience of an extension telephone? Imagine the surprise of such an original gift on Christmas day and the months of pleasure and comfort this service will give.

- * Yes, the actual telephone itself, attractively wrapped and ready to go under the Christmas tree, can be ordered from any Bell Business Office.
- * We will arrange to connect it at your convenience.
- * You may pay for it now or we will bill you month by month.
- * A gift you can buy to suit your pocket book (We suggest one year's service as an ideal gift.)
- * You can pick up your gift-wrapped telephone at our Business Office or we will be pleased to deliver it for you.
- * Gift telephones are available at the standard rate of $1.00 a month in the smaller centres and $1.25 in the larger, plus the usual $2.00 installation charge.
- * Inquire about coloured telephones. Now available in Ivory, Beige, Green, and Red, at an additional colour charge.
