Young People's Banquet Was Sunday Event

The annual Young People's Banquet was held in the church basement on Friday evening. Christmas decorations brightened the tables and eighty-five persons sat down to a turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings ending with every kind of pie one could mention. After everyone was satisfied, Jean Bird, president of the Young People's Society, presented the programme by a toast to the Queen. Elmer Bird proposed a toast to the Church to which T. J. Brownridge responded. Solos were sung by Tom Hunter from St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby, accordion numbers by Sandra Tindale followed by an address from Mr. Clifford Waite, DFC, M.A. who spoke on "Frontier College." The greatest single national problem in Canada today, he said, is assimilating the more than a million new Canadians who have come to Canada since 1945. They are not foreigners or visitors but have come to stay. The challenge is ours in helping them to become good Canadians. He went on to tell how the how laborer teachers of Frontier College, university students chosen for their physique and interest in men, go into logging camps, mines and the railway gangs on the Canadian borderland to assist these men in their citizenship. Following this, the minister, Mr. Russ installed the new officers of the Young People for 1956. They are: president, Bill Wilson; 1st vice president, Norman Bird; secretary treasurer, Bernice Wilson. Frank Clayton and M. Guy Wilson and Harold Early went by train last Friday to London to attend the funeral of their uncle, Mr. John Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bridgen motored to Southampton on Saturday to attend his uncle's funeral.

The Bright Star Mission Band held their Christmas meeting Sunday afternoon at the home of Margaret Brownridge. Adrienne Nurse presided, Margaret Austin gave the secretary's report and Marilyn Wray on the treasurer's. Scripture was read by Catherine Hunter, David Giffen, the missionary prayer and Miss Hester Barnes told the story. Nancy Hunter dedicated the offering which was received by Robbie Bridgen and Stuart Nurse. Margaret Austin played a guitar solo and Barbara Cunningham showed a Christmas film in colour. Margaret Wade thanked the hostess and Doris Pickett gave the closing prayer.
