

CLUB MIDTOWN

by Georwell
After last Friday night's misunderstanding, it has been agreed to investigate the cost of a P.A. system for C.M. The matter will be discussed and voted on early in January.
A matter which we forgot to mention last week, was one brought up at the meeting concerning club crests.

Donna Bennett was elected to submit plans for a crest to a Toronto firm and samples will be exhibited at the dances for your approval. They will sell for approximately $30 each. (Sorry, no terms on this item.)
Although we were unable to attend the S. C. parade on Saturday, we understand that the C.M. float was a success, due to the preparations and work of Al Darby, Bill Hardman, Mike Armstrong and Bill Sunnuck. A brief, unconfirmed key to the participating characters follows: Gail McGillivray as Peter Pan; Carole Sedden as Wendy; Erica Wade and Marilyn Hepler as Tinker-Bell and the Fairy; Mike Armstrong as Captain Hook ... with Messrs. Wade and Darby as his pirates; and Calvin King as the Dragon. The vehicle was supplied by Mr. Howard Stull and driven by Andy Stull (a direct descendant of his father). Congrats to all involved for a job well done.

There will be a dance this Friday night, if we have to whistle to provide music. It will feature mistletoe and all the other symbols indicative of the Yuletide Season.

See you at C.M.
P.S.: Nearly forgot, Merry Christmas, dear readers.

PRESENTED TO HER MAJESTY

Mrs. C. E. Stacey, Draper Street, received word last week that a relative had been presented to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and other members of the Royal Family.

Major F. Godly, who is Mrs. Stacey's only nephew, was presented to the Queen at Albert Hall on Remembrance Day, for the work he has done in the British Legion. He is president of the London District of the Legion.

Works Staff Entertains Council, Town Officials

Continuing a custom of the past few years, the town works staff entertained council members and officials of other town departments at a dinner dance Saturday.

Alf Collins, town foreman, arranged the party at North Halton Golf and Country Club, with ladies of Scotch Black W.I. serving turkey dinner to sixty guests. The tables were attractively decorated in the Christmas spirit, with a Christmas tree favour at each place. Each lady received a corsage from Deputy Reeve Al Norton who is proprietor of Norton Floral.

Mayor Jack Armstrong acted as the chairman at dinner and with former town foreman Ern Hyde and Clerk John D. Kelly, introduced each guest, particularly mentioning the two newest councillors, LeRoy Dale, Q.C., and Alf Sykes, who will take office in January. Mr. Dale, who was Georgetown's first mayor when the town was incorporated, was asked to speak by the mayor. Assessment Commissioner Joseph Gibbons said Grace and Police Chief Roy Haley toasted the Queen.

Reeve Stan Allen thanked the ladies for the delicious meal which had been topped off by the serving of a flaming plum pudding. Mrs. Jack Irving spoke for the catering group and said it had been a pleasure to be asked.

The Karn Brothers Orchestra from Limehouse played for modern and old time dancing afterwards, and the guests adjourned at 11 o'clock to the lounge to watch Georgetown's Santa Claus parade which was televised over the Hamilton station.

Guests at the dinner were: Mayor and Mrs. Jack Armstrong, Reeve and Mrs. Stan Allen, Deputy Reeve and Mrs. Al Norton, and councillors Garfield McGillivray, Thomas L. Lyons, Doug Sargent, Harry Hale, Irwin Noble, and Walter Gray and their wives; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Benham, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eason, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wilson, Miss Jessie Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Sykes, Mr. LeRoy Dale, Q.C., Mrs. Al Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haley, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Blashorow, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Found, Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde, Mr. Lionel Hamilton, Mrs. Irene Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Al Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony VanTol, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shenk, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scratch, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Campbell, Mr. Henry Westerveldt, Mr. Herb Robinson, Mr. Ivan Kaminsky, Mr. Secco Vittorina, Mr. Les Dickenson.

Minstrel Show Tops Stone School Concert

The Stone School was crowded to capacity on Thursday evening for the annual Christmas concert put on by the pupils. Mrs. Albert Prewood, the teacher, was assisted in preparing the program by the musical director for the school, Mrs. Gordon Kidney. The audience was delighted by the variety of the program which featured numbers by all ages, from little beginners to the Grade VIII pupils.

Charles Greig was chairman for the evening and announced the numbers, which included recitations and monologues by Keith Hill, Patricia Graham, Donald Hurt, Irene Vary, a dance by Mabel Greig, and a solo by Paul Kidney. Dick Lindauer gave the welcome and there were several playlets by different grades.

Peter Glynn and Sidney Fletcher played an instrumental duet. There were square dancing exhibitions and songs by the juniors and seniors. The program concluded with a minstrel show for which Hubert Kux was interlocutor and Peter Glynn and Sidney Fletcher were the end men. During the intermission the senior girls sold candy which they had made themselves.

Santa Claus made his appearance at the close of the program and distributed gifts from the brightly lighted tree.

Will Dedicate Gifts At St. Alban's Church

On Christmas day, at the 10:45 a.m. family service in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, a dedication of liturgical gifts will take place.

The rector will dedicate scarlet covered foam rubber kneelers for the Sanctuary and Altar gradus step. Also two white covered foam rubber cushions for use on occasions of Holy matrimony and holy confirmation.

The Christmas gifts are to be given to the honour and glory of God by the Canon Wallace Junior Guild of St. Alban's Glen Williams, which is directed by Mrs. R. Williams and Mrs. Gordon Hills. Betty Lucas is the president.

—Only three shopping days left. Let your friendly Georgetown merchants finalize your gift problems.
