DELICIOUS! That's what Canadian National Railway's Chief Instructor Joseph F. Nellis seems to be thinking after producing a fruity plum pudding on a CNR dining car. Chef Nellis and his assistants have spent a month preparing sufficient puddings to serve 21,000 CNR travellers this Yuletide season. Made from a famous century-old recipe, they will be served in all CNR diners between December 16 and January 3. And the puddings are only part of the menu—there'll be ten tons of roast turkey, too.

Greetings for CHRISTMAS

We'll go along with Santa in wishing a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to All.

Supper, Entertainment For the Sunday School

The annual pot luck supper and Sunday School Christmas concert was held in the church Friday night. There was a good attendance and all enjoyed the bountiful supper. A lovely Christmas film was shown, "And on Earth Peace" in colour, interspersed with Christmas Carols. A programme was then given by the children, each class making a contribution. This was followed by a visit from Santa Claus delighting the younger generation. Mr. Bert Rogers left Monday by plane for St. Petersburg, Florida, where he will visit with his sister for the winter months

Miss Mary Jennings was student teacher at the Stone School last week. Mrs. J. Kirkwood and Mrs. E. Peters spent Sunday in Toronto and attended the morning service at Deer Park United Church where Jim Kirkwood Jr. is student assistant. Certificates and prizes were given out on Sunday to those pupils who had written on the National Temperance Course this fall. A five year plan was awarded to Elizabeth Gibson who had completed five years in the course.

Surprise Reception On 45th Anniversary

On Saturday, December 3rd, the family and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William Burgess gathered at a surprise reception given by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McEachern, to celebrate their parents' 45th wedding anniversary.

The dining room was decorated with pink and white streamers with a large white bell in the centre. The bride's table was centred with a 3-tiered wedding cake, beautifully decorated in pink and white, flanked by silver candelabras. The same color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations. The dinner was served by the four oldest grandchildren, Diane Swindlehurst, Gordon Brook, Marianne and Ron McEachern, assisted by Wendy MacKenzie, Barbara Jensen, Mrs. Wilfred McEachern and Mrs. Frank Freeman.

The bride was attired in a navy crepe dress and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses. Little Patsy Swindlehurst presented her grandmother with a bouquet of roses. The couple received varied gifts, along with a sum of money.

The family consists of Anne (Mrs. G. G. Brook), Rhea, (Mrs. R. M. Pine) Sid and Bill of Toronto, Frank and Charles of Chatham, Dorothy (Mrs. Vic Swindlehurst) of Ballinafad and Mary (Mrs. H. S. McEachern) of Acton. Also present was a sister of the bride, Mrs. S. C. Poak and her husband, and a brother, George Williams and his wife, all of Toronto. Eleven of the couple's fifteen grandchildren were present for the occasion.

Mr. Burgess, until his retirement four years ago, was an engineer on the CPR, having spent 46 years in their service. He now resides on a farm near Acton.

Equestrian Reeve Entertains at Dinner

On Thursday, December 15th, Mr. Wilfrid Bird, reeve of the township of Esquimes, entertained at noon dinner at the McGibbog Hotel after the council meeting in the morning.

The guests were the members of the township council, the road superintendent, Bill Townsend, his staff, Sam Mileham, Bill Corley and Herb Boshier, George Brown, Le Roy Dale, Q.C., K. C. Lindsay, township clerk and Art Benton, assessment commissioner.

Members of the township council are Walter Linham, deputy-reeve; George Currie, Spencer Wilson and Campbell Sinclair.

Mr. Dale's talk to the guests, along with the excellent dinner made this an occasion to remember.

NATIVITY SCENE

Those driving along Guelph Street will notice the beautiful nativity scene on the lawn of St. George's Church this has been the work of Rev. Kenneth Richardson, the rector. Jim Costigan, Jr. and Mr. Fred Armstrong, Sr. in the rush of Christmas activities it is pleasant to come upon this bit of peaceful beauty, and it makes one pause and realize the true meaning of Christmas.
