Raiders in Top Brackets Win Twice During Week
With Jack Rhodes scintillating in goal, Georgetown Raiders piled up a commanding lead in their intermediate hockey grouping last week, when they won two more games.
Georgetown now has an impressive total of 12 games won, with Stouffville their closest rival in the standing. The latter have won 8 games.
In Oakville on Wednesday, the two teams played a tight game until the third period when Raiders had a 4-goal spurge, to win 6-1.
Playing with Brampton here on Friday, Raiders came up with a similar score.
In Oakville, Chard and Chappel each got a pair and Dixon and Bolzon shared in the scoring. F. Milne scored the only Oakville goal in the first period.
Rhodes was robbed of a shut-out in the Brampton game when a weak shot by Cruikshank in the 2nd dribbled into the net off his glove. Otherwise it was Georgetown's game all the way. Ptashink got two goals, Chappel, Dixon, Blake Inglis and Bolzon singles.
Junior Beaumont, badly injured in a game the previous week is making a good progress and will not suffer any permanent damage from his fractured cheeks, but it is problematic whether he will be back in uniform this season. Bradkin, benched for a 3-game "vacation" will be back in action this Friday when Oakville are the visitors.
Raiders have seven games left before playoff time.
They play at home with Oakville on the 13th and 27th, with Stouffville Feb. 3 and Milton, Feb. 7th. Away games are at Stouffville next Tuesday, at Milton on the 20th and at Oakville on the 25th.
