New Staffers Join Both Local Banks

Several staff changes have occurred in the two local banks during the past few weeks.

At the Royal Bank, where Richard Miller recently arrived as manager Donald Dirstein, whose home is in Hanover, was transferred from the New Hamburg branch and Mrs. P. E. Jubb, who recently moved to town from Toronto is also a new staff member.

Bert deVuyst is leaving the end of the month, and will be making his home at Langley, B.C. where he will continue in the bank's employ. Bert was the first of his family to emigrate from Holland. In Langley, he will be reunited with his parents, 5 brothers and 4 sisters.

Two newcomers at the Bank of Commerce are Mrs. Chris Richter, who with her husband has moved into one of the new subdivisions in town and who formerly worked at the bank's Bloor St. W. branch in Toronto, and Michael Armstrong, son of Mayor and Mrs. Jack Armstrong who has left high school to start on a banking career.

Mrs. Ken Faulkner, the former Marion Hamilton, who stayed on the staff after her marriage last year, left this week to live in Brampton where her husband is a member of the Royal Bank staff.

GLEN WILLIAMS

INSTALL OFFICERS WILLING HELPERS

New officers of the Willing Helpers of Glen Williams United Church were installed by Rev. W. E. Gill when the ladies met on January 11th at the home of Mrs. Bert Dixon.

Mr. Gill gave a short talk on the duties of officers in an organization and a business meeting followed. The meeting dates were changed to the first Monday in the month. Special day cards were requested for the February meeting which will be held at the parsonage in Norval.

Cerebral Hemorrhage Young Mother Dies

A husband and young family of three were bereaved on Saturday when Mrs. Donald Middleton, 32, died in hospital in Toronto. She failed to recover from a cerebral hemorrhage which struck the previous Wednesday.

Sister of Mrs. William Fleming of town, Mrs. Middleton was the former Mary Dora Marshall, a native of Port Elgin.

Surviving are her husband and children Lynne, Robert and David, the latter only nine months old; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Listowel; two sisters and a brother, Mrs. C. G. Cottrill, Kincardine, Mrs. William Fleming, 11 Mountainview Road, Georgetown, and Robert Marshall Listowel.

Interment was in York Cemetery following the funeral service Monday in Toronto at the Kane Funeral Home.

See Coloured Slides Annual Choir Dinner

Members of St. George's Choir and their guests enjoyed a turkey dinner last Thursday evening in the Sunday School room, tendered to them by the ladies of the W.A. under the convener-ship of Mrs. S. Walker and Mrs. T. Warnes.

Mr. Thomas Warnes, president of the choir, expressed the appreciation of the members to the ladies of the W.A. and also introduced Rev. Kenneth Richardson, who spoke a few words. Rev. Richardson said how much the congregation as a whole, and he, personally, appreciated the work the choir does, led by the choir-master Bruce M. Harding and the organist Mrs. W. F. Bradley, in producing such fine music Sunday by Sunday.

After dinner, choir-master Bruce Harding showed some very beautiful coloured slides of scenery taken in and around Georgetown, and also coloured movies of the seacoast of Maine. The balance of the evening was spent playing games arranged by Mrs. J. L. Lambert.

CLEAVE WILSON NOW WITH OPP AT ESSEX

Cleave Wilson, an Ontario Provincial police constable with the Owen Sound detachment since he joined the force a few years ago was transferred the first of the year to Essex.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have been making their home in Guelph, but have now moved to Essex. Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Seward Wilson, 1 Guelph Street.

Staunton, Christian Stewardship; Mrs. George Ward, missionary monthly; Mrs. R. H. Wright, Mrs. M. McFarlane, pianists.

SURGE

MILKERS are so generally satisfactory to so many hundreds of thousands of cow milking men that a shining bright new Surge must roll off the production line every two minutes of every working day.

You can have money-making milking in your herd.
