BIRTHS

CURRIE - Mr. and Mrs. John Currie are happy to announce the birth of their daughter Dorothy Joan on Monday, January 16th, 1956.

MEMORIAMS

BLYTH - MARLOW - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Selina Blyth Marlow, who passed away Jan. 24th, 1955. God knew that she was suffering, That the hills were hard to climb, So he closed her weary eyelids, And whispered "Peace be thine." Away in the beautiful hills of God, By the valley of rest so fair, Some time, some day, we know not when, We will meet our loved one there. -Lovingly remembered by Elsic,

Bill and the boys. MARLOW - In loving memory of a dear wife, Selina Armstrong Blyth Marlow, who passed away January 24th, 1955.

Peacefully sleeping, rseting at last, The world's weary trouble and trials are past. In silence she suffered, in patience she bore. Till God called her home to suffer no -Always remembered by her husband Charles Marlow. MILLIERE - In loving memory of a dear father. William Milliere who passed away January 21st, 1951. Loving and kind in all his ways, Upright and just to the end of his

Meeting Ceylon's Housing Shortage

Ceylon needs 276,000 new homes plus another 40,000 a year to house its increasing population. With aid of UN specialist in lowcost housing, G. F. Middleton (right), Ceylon's Ministry of Industries, Housing and Social Services has evolved suitable methods of building obeap but strong and durable homes with walls of rammed earth. Shown here is worker at housing project at Gongitota for low-income groups, With Mr. Middleton is J. R. Symonds, UN Technical Assistance representative in Ceylon,

To help provide a living for Palestine refugees in the Jerdan area, the UN Relief and Works Agency has provided leans to enable firms to put refugees on their payrells. One lean went to mederales a tobacco factory which is now turning out enough eighrettes at a sufficiently low price to compete on fereign markets. Shown here are seems of the refugees among the employees at the factory.
