ASHGROVE
Strong Mission Support
Made by Ashgrove Church

The annual meeting of Ashgrove church was held Friday night, Jan. 20th in the basement with the minister Mr. Russ presiding. Reports were given from the Sunday School, the W.A., Women's Missionary Society, Baby Band and the Bright Star Mission Band which celebrated its 20th anniversary last October. All groups presented encouraging reports, the WMS having raised the largest amount in its records to date. The church treasurer Ward Brownridge reported a considerable balance on hand and Charles Austin gave the report of the Missionary and Maintenance fund of the church. The following officers were elected to the board of stewards, Ernie Tindale, John Ruddell, Fred Nurse, J. H. Hunter and T. J. Brownridge to the Session. James Carney is M & M treasurer and Mr. Tom Blackett and Frank Wilson were appointed auditors.

The January meeting of the Wom-ers were hostesses at a shower on Mrs. Clifford Hunter with president Mrs. W. Bird opening with the ode and Institute creed. During the business period $10 was voted to Retarded Children in Milton. Mrs. R. J. Graham and Mrs. Frank Ruddell were appointed to look after yarn for two layettes for Children's Aid. Mrs. W. Stringer was voted to be a member of the Hall Board. Roll call was answered by "My impression of my first Institute meeting." Mrs. Percy Leslie was in charge of the program and called on Mrs. John Bellbody for the motto "Life is one darned thing after another." Guest speaker was Mrs. Somerville of Acton who gave the story of the Mary Stewart Collect and said it was written as a prayer by a teacher in 1904 for women. Current events were given by Mrs. Russell Hepburn, followed by two lovely duets sung by Eileen Harrop and Johnny Wilson of Pinegrove School "Glow Worm" and "Kentucky Babe." A social hour followed.

Mrs. Joseph Drake and Betty Bay-ers were hostesses to a shower on Saturday afternoon for Miss Myrna Wilson. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bride.

Those who were present at the church service on Sunday morning had the pleasure of hearing a sermon by Jim Kirkwood of Ballinacree. He gave a splendid message on "The Pure in Heart" and we all wish him success in his career for the minis-try.
