5 BULLS, 23 FEMALES

This is a good quality herd of excellent uniformity. The foundation animals come from the Barnes Bros. herd of Fort Fairfield, Maine, one of the leading herds in the New England states and from the Leonard Slipp herd, one of the really good herds in the Maritimes.

The bulls include Homestead Footprint Red, bred by Barnes Bros., he is a May, 1955 grandson of Lowther Lord Telluria, also a grandson of King Arthur, a famous U.S. sire and a beautiful Iron Duke bred calf and a beautiful bull of the famous Wild Eyes family. The bulls include two born May, 1955, and three October, 1955 calves.

The females are mostly grand daughters of Borderview Red Knight and Lowther Lord Telluria and carry the service of Homestead Warrior (imported.)

The yearlings and calves are of beautiful type showing the results of good breeding. Cattle sell in heated, comfortable quarters. Herd TB tested in January, 1956.
