James Crockard, 76
Was Logan Quarryman

A lifelong resident of Glen Williams, where he worked as a quarryman and later as night watchman at a textile mill, James Crockard, 76 was buried in Glen Williams Cemetery Saturday following funeral service at the Harold C. McClure funeral home in town.

Mr. Crockard was born on shipboard when his mother was emigrating from Ireland to Canada. He attended public school in the Glen and high school in Georgetown, then worked for many years in the Logan Quarries. Unmarried, he made his home with his mother until her death, and latterly lived alone in a house beside the Glen Bridge.

Of late years he was night watchman at the old Barraclough mill and then had a similar job with Glen Textiles in the building which was de-

Name Lorriman, Eason
Wardens at St. Alban's

Henry Lorriman was elected people's warden and Joseph Eason was appointed rector's warden at the annual vestry meeting of St. Alban's Anglican Church, January 30th.

The vestry followed a pot luck supper and an evensong service.

Rev. Kenneth Richardson addressed the gathering prior to the business session and reported a steady increase in church activities. A chapter of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen was formed and an AYPA organized. There were 19 baptisms, 2 services of matrimony and 4 burials during the year.

Tribute was expressed to all the parish organizations who worked diligently to help lift the church out of debt. The church was beautified with gifts of kneeling cushions for the altar rail, new burses and veil and two white satin cushions for wedding and confirmation services, these they gifts of the Canon Wallace Guild.

The retiring warden, Jack Lucas presented the general church report and Mrs. William Korzack that of the Ladies Guild. Mrs. Gordon Hills reported for the Canon Wallace Guild; Henry Lorriman for the BAC, and Donna Bennett for the Sunday School.

An activity of the Canon Wallace Guild was distribution of a hundred church calendars. The men had a successful project in the parish picnic. Lay representatives to synod are Arthur Beaumont, who attended the general synod in Edmonton last year and Joseph Eason, with Roland Haines as substitute. Gordon Hills is convener of sidesmen.

This year the church plans a complete reshingling of the church roof. The church will operate on a budget and anticipates a general strengthening of the parish, spiritually, numerically and financially.

Don't forget to attend Georgetown's next formal, this Friday night, in the Arena Rose Room. Sponsored by the IOBE.

Of Institute Meeting

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Evans, Mountainview Road, Wednesday, February 1st. Mrs. Frank Petch, president, presided at the meeting of forty two ladies, opening with the W.I. Ode, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was replied to by taking the first letter of one's name and replying with a city beginning with that letter. Minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given.

A letter was received from J. L. Lambert thanking the W.I. for interest and help for the high school commencement. A letter regarding the convention at the OAC for branch secretaries in May 10th - 11th was read. The Salada Tea contest was discussed but was left over for the March meeting.

The shower for the layette was well responded to. This will be kept on hand for needy cases. Mrs. R. T. Paul read two letters from the W.I.'s pen pal in Westerham, England, thanking them for the boxes sent for their Christmas.

Mrs. Clarence Hayes had the motto "For home and country" and gave a lot of information about the Women's Institute. Also some changes that have taken place in the Department. The motto For Home & Country was devised by Laura Rose Stephen who resided in Georgetown and will be remembered by many.

A motion was made to hold a large euche to be held in the future. The committee in charge of it is: Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. Wellington Wilson, Mrs. Damon Roberts, Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Harold Cleave and Mrs. Wm. Hunter. Each member to be responsible for bringing four or more guests but everyone is welcome.

Mrs. W. G. Bell, Helping Hand convener reported a quilt made by her committee. The program committee, Mrs. William Marshall and Mrs. Wellington Wilson had Mrs. William Cromar as their guest and entertainer. She gave two very interesting readings entitled "Aunt Tilley Testifies" and "I have to live with myself."

Mrs. William Sinclair gave a vote of thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Cromar and all who took part in the meeting.

After the singing of the Queen the meeting closed. A very successful penny sale was held after this, arranged by Mrs. George Campbell. Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Wellington Wilson, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, Mrs. E. R. Robinson, Mrs. R. T. Paul and Mrs. H. C. Bailey. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess and committee.
