SCARLET COATED RCMP FLANK COUPLE AFTER WEDDING VOWS

Two lines of Royal Canadian Mounted Police personnel in scarlet and gold dress uniform, stood at attention outside First United Church, Prince Rupert, B.C., on the morning of January 25th following the wedding ceremony which united in marriage Isabel Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Irving of Wadena, Saskatchewan and Corporal William George Campbell, son of John R. Campbell, Georgetown and the later Mrs. Campbell.

Rev. L. G. Steber heard the marriage vows at the altar adorned with bouquets of pink carnations and heather. Soloist, Mrs. W. M. Taylor sang 'The Lord's Prayer' accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Smith at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown fashioned of white brocaded satin, featuring a strapless fitted bodice to a voluminous skirt. A bolero with a stand-up collar and lily-point sleeves topped her gown. Her net headdress, encrusted with pearls caught her fingertip length veil of silk embroidered net and she carried a gardenia on a white prayer book.

Miss Gloria Irving, Prince Rupert, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, wore a ballerina-length gown of midnight blue velvet featuring a low, circular neckline on a fitted bodice to a bouffant skirt. In her hair she wore a braided bandeau of matching velvet and she carried a nosegay of yellow and midnight blue carnations.

Cpl. R. N. Milmine, Grimsby, Ont., was best man, while ushers were Constables Martin Gregory, Kingston, and Glen Gordon, Melville, Saskatchewan. At a reception in the chief's and petty officers' mess, HMCS Chatham, the bridal table was centred with a three tiered wedding cake surrounded by tulle dotted with flowers, and flanked by ivory tapers in triple silver candelabra.

Presiding at the pouring table were Mrs. Adan Wildgoose and Mrs. A. Irving of Telkwa, aunt of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy coloured afternoon dress flecked with teal offset with black velvet trim, light blue accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Leaving in the afternoon by air for a honeymoon trip to Ketchikan, Alaska, the bride wore a white wool suit, topped with a mink-blended muskrat coat, black and white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The newlyweds returned by boat to take up residence in the Elizabeth Apartments in Prince Rupert, where Cpl. Campbell is stationed with the RCMP. Mrs. Campbell was formerly employed with Trans-Canada Airlines at Edmonton, Alberta.

LIMEHOUSE

THINK SPRING HATS RESEMBLE NUT BOWLS

Some of the new spring hats resemble upturned nut bowls, and might be trimmed with crackers and nuts, was the opinion of Mrs. A. Benton who included this item in her current events report at Thursday's meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute. The report was read by Mrs. E. Fendley in Mrs. Benton's absence.

Mrs. Jack Noble was hostess and president Mrs. E. Sanford conducted the meeting. Members answered roll call by naming something in their home which was made in Canada.

An appeal from the Navy League was discussed, as well as the sending of delegates to the secretaries' conference at Guelph OAC and the county folk school. The January financial committee gave a report on their charge in the memorial hall, and a February committee was named.

Mrs. James Noble, assistant convener of agriculture and Canadian industries had charge of the program. Mrs. Harry Brown gave the motto: Worry is like a rocking chair, it gives you something to do, but won't get you anywhere. A paper prepared by Mrs. F. Geary was read by Mrs. Wilson, in which she pointed out that Canadian industries must be supported.

50-50 CLUB VIEWS RELIGIOUS MOVIE

For their February meeting the 50-50 Club of St. John's United Church had a short business meeting in the church hall, followed by a visit to the Ruxy Theatre to see Sign of the Pagan.

Afterwards the hosts for the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Prouse and Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde served lunch in the church hall.

IGA Partner Weds Honeymoon in South

Partner with Bob Caldwell in operating the local IGA Supermarket, Bruce Williamson and his bride are honeymooning in the southern States following their marriage in Acton on January 28th.

The bride, Isabel Mary Smith is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith, Acton and the groom, son of Mrs. and the late William E. Williamson, Burlington.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Armstrong in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton. The bride wore a street length dress of ice blue with matching accessories and a corsage of baby orchids.

Mrs. Anne Black, Thorndale, was her sister's attendant, dressed in a beige suit with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. John L. Davidson, Acton, was groomsmen.

Guests from Burlington, Buffalo, Thorndale, Toronto, Welland and Georgetown attended the wedding and a reception which followed at the bride's home.

Rotarians Will Sponsor Harness Races Again

The Rotary Club is planning again to sponsor a harness race meet in Georgetown, and has set June 2nd as the date this year.

The harness meet was the first major project of the new club organized last year, and was moderately successful, with the club netting two hundred dollars for their efforts. Results were encouraging enough to continue it as a yearly project and members are confident that this year, there will be a growth in attendance and in profits.

Two members, Jim Ritchie and Bud Bishop attended a meeting of the Canadian Trotting Association Thursday night at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, and established their date, while picking up useful pointers on operating the day in Georgetown.

Earlier in the day, the same delegates were at a meeting of the Crippled Children's Association in the King Edward Hotel, to learn details about the operation of an Easter Seal campaign which the club will undertake for the first time this year.

ORENDA EMPLOYEES GIVE $1000.00 TO HOSPITAL

Orenda Employees' Welfare Fund has donated $1,000 to Peel Memorial Hospital, designating that the money be used for a new gas machine for the operating room.

This equipment has been ordered and when installed, will carry a plaque with the donors' name.
