Turner-Henderson St. John's Wedding

Elizabeth Ann Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Henderson, of Normandy Blvd., became the bride of Raymond Windsor Turner, son of the late Raymond C. Turner and Mrs. Turner of Georgetown, on Saturday, January 28th at 2 p.m.

The quiet ceremony was performed in the church parlours of St. John's United Church by the Rev. Morgan McFarlane. The bride's father gave her in marriage. The bride was dressed in a light grey suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Miss Betsy Willson was her only attendant wearing a beige suit with pink accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Ian MacNeale was groomsmen for his friend.

Mrs. Henderson received at their home after the ceremony for her daughter. The young couple will live in an apartment on Queen St. The bride was formerly employed at Lillie's Beauty Shop, the groom is employed with W. H. Carr.

Maxine Ryall entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home for the bride as did the former Sandra Loudon, before her marriage.

Two RCAF reservists taking a refresher course at Toronto Flying Club were killed Sunday when their plane crashed on the Oscar Graham farm near Brampton. Both were Toronto residents.

BLUE VALLEY RANCH COUNTRY MUSIC NIGHT

A country music night is scheduled to start in the Acton town hall every Saturday night starting February 11. This night will be called Blue Valley Country Music Nite.

People have asked for a night such as this, and in answer to many requests we have decided to try it.

If people respond to what they say they will do and the evening proves to be a success then we will import talent in from around the country like we have been doing at Blue Valley Ranch, Limehouse, to bring to you the kind of music to make this a lively and entertaining evening for the people in this district.

There will be two shows each Saturday night. First show starts at eight thirty p.m. and second one at 10.30 p.m.

This evening will be entertaining for young and old alike and we would appreciate your comments on how we may improve the show in any way to make it one of the best in the country. There will be audience participation.

Country music entertainers such as soloists, groups, quartettes or comedians who would be interested in appearing on the show are requested to please get in touch with Earl Scott, Blue Valley Ranch, Limehouse, or phone Georgetown TR. 7-2144. (adv.)

BRIGHT STARS MEET AT BRIGDEN HOME

The Bright Star Mission Band met at the home of Karen and Robert Brigden on Sunday afternoon. Catherine Hunter was the presiding officer. Doris Pickett accompanied the opening hymn "When He Cometh."

Roll call was answered by naming a book from the new testament. Scripture was read by Karen Brigden and Margaret Austen gave the missionary prayer. Mrs. Blackett told a delightful story and Margaret Austin played a solo on the guitar. Ellen Hunter and Larry Pickett took up the offering which was dedicated by Dorcen Carney.

The meeting closed with the hymn "Mothers of Salem" the closing prayer was given by Sandra Carney. The young hostess and her mother served a delicious lunch.

MIDGETS LOSE FIRST GAME WITH ELMIRA

Georgetown dropped a 3-2 decision to Elmira in the first game of the OMHA Midget B playoffs.

The losers took a 1-0 lead in the first period with Harrison scoring on a pass from Marshall. Elmira tied the game in the second when Bauman scored unassisted. Georgetown again took the lead in the final period when Marshall scored from Harrison. Rogers tallied for Elmira to tie the game with a goal at 18.30.

Poor shooting cost Georgetown the game, and they missed at least four good chances in the earlier stages.

Final game of the goals-to-count series is in Elmira Friday.
