HARTSHORNE - In loving memory of our dear mother, Elizabeth Hartshorne, who passed away February 25th, 1938. God knew that she was suffering. That the hills were hard to climb. So he closed her weary eyelids. And whispered "Peace be thine." Away in the beautiful hills of God. By the valley of rest so fair. Some day, we know not when, We will meet our loved one there. Ever remembered by Lily, Mammie and Frank.

HILL - In loving memory of my wife, Clara Hill, who died February 13th, 1953. Deep in the heart lies a picture Of a loved one laid to rest; In memory's frame I will keep it. Because she was one of the best. Always remembered by her husband, James.

HILL - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Chester Hill, who died February 24th, 1954. I am thinking of you today dad, But then it is nothing new, I thought about you yesterday. THE MAIL BAG

SAYS JEHOVAHS TWIST FACTS ON BLOOD DIET

Dear Editor: Georgetown, Ontario, February 21st, 1956

Referring to the good letter published from your mail bag regarding blood transfusions, Lev. 7:26 forbidding blood diet to Israelites seems so remotely concerned that any relation to transfusions is twisted connection.

One may be permitted opinions, as opinions only, but the large issue here is that Jehovah God cannot be charged with withholding eternal life from one who might receive a blood transfusion. Salvation is unmerited ever and always. It is not by works of righteousness which we have done, but by personal trust in the sin-bearing Saviour, the Son of God.

The emphasis on blood in the Old Testament is entirely associated with the sin offering for the people. It is clear in John 1:29 and 1 John 1:7 of the New Testament that specific blood is essential and compulsory for our salvation. Let's place our faith aright. Respectfully yours, -G. L. Garner.
