County Takes Action
Avoid Rabies Spread

Believing in the adage "an ounce of prevention" a Rabies Control Committee has been established in Halton, in an effort to ward off any spread of the dread disease, or to control it, should it spread south from the northern Ontario area.

The committee, headed by H. C. Merry of Oakville Humane Society, and with Dr. D. F. Damude, V.S. of Halton Health Unit as secretary, numbers a group of interested county officials in its membership. These include Warden Stan Allen; Dr. A. F. Bull, Halton MOH; Dudley Hitchcock, game warden, Ross Pearen, mayor of Milton; J. E. Whitlock, Ontario Ag-Rep.; and veterinary surgeons Dr. Ben Young, Nassagaweya, Dr. C. H. Healon, Milton and Dr. Fred Bridgeman, Nelson.

The committee has requested free vaccination of all dogs in Halton by the Dept. of Agriculture, and have also requested a fox-thinning program be undertaken by the Dept. of Lands and Forests.

A recommendation has been made that all dogs be licenced and wear identification tags and all stray and unwanted dogs be picked up and destroyed if not called for in 72 hours.

Until free vaccination is available, the committee recommends that all hunting dogs and dogs that may come in contact with wildlife be vaccinated by practicing veterinarians.

FARM NEWS
OVER-ORGANIZED?
J. E. W.

A few days ago we had occasion to compile a list of Halton farm organizations. To our amazement we listed 95 and we may have overlooked some. We are now beginning to realize why so much of our time is taken up with meetings, to the point where we find it impossible to get out and make the farm calls we used to do. One would hardly think that a little county like Halton needed that many individual organizations and yet we looked over the list, it would take a braver man than "your truly" to suggest which ones should be eliminated. We could not help but wonder though, if the multiplicity of farm organizations, might be one of the reasons why, in some organizations, they seem to have increasing difficulty in getting folk to accept office.
