STACEY — I would like to thank the Canadian Legion, W.A. of the Canadian Legion, Alliance Paper Mill and the Rebekah Lodge, who sent me gifts and cards during my three weeks illness at my home on Draper St. — Cliff (Tim) Stacey.

WRIGHT — I would like to thank all my friends and neighbours for their kindness at the death of my father. For their cards and floral tributes. A special thank you to the members of my knitting club — Mrs. Dennis Wright.

Homesteaded in West Frank Kennedy Dies

Frank Lyle Kennedy who died at his home, 144 Suffolk St., Guelph, on March 11th after a short illness, was a former Georgetown resident. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy resided on John Street for several years, moving from here to Brampton, and six years ago to Guelph.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy he was born on a farm in Nassagaweya. After his marriage to Elizabeth Simpson, they went west and homesteaded near Rosetown, Saskatchewan. They returned to Ontario eighteen years ago, farmed in Nassagaweya for a time, then sold out and moved to Georgetown.

Mr. Kennedy leaves his wife, three daughters, Mrs. William Percival (Edith) of Willowdale, Mrs. William Braisby (Florence), Caroline St., Georgetown, and Mrs. Max Bromley (Laura) of Orlando, Florida; and one sister Mrs. Ed Hume, Carlisle, Saskatchewan. A son, Norrie, died six years ago.

The funeral service on Wednesday at the McAnaghan-Wall funeral home, Guelph, was followed by interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

MRS. MURIEL ADAMS CONTEST WINNER

Mrs. Muriel Adams, 82 Guelph St., won a set of aluminum waterless cookers last week, when she was notified that she was a prizewinner in a history quiz sponsored by Monarch Flour. Mrs. Adams is the second in the family to win a prize in this contest. A few weeks ago her daughter, Mrs. Betty Jamieson was one of the winners.

ATTENDS PARENTS' DIAMOND WEDDING

Hydro superintendent G. W. McCallum, and his wife were in Fenelon Falls last week-end to celebrate a happy occasion.

It was the 60th wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm H. McCallum.

Mr. McCallum retired two years ago after operating a tailoring and haberdashery shop in Fenelon Falls for most of his married life. His brother now operates the business.

Mr. McCallum, who is 84 years old, is a Fenelon native, and it is a coincidence that the town where his only son lives was one in which he started his trade as a tailor. As a young man he worked in a large department store in the old McLeod block, which now contains Garner's Store and the Bank of Commerce. He was also employed in Drayton where he met his wife, Veronica Stricker, and they lived in Neepawa, Manitoba for a short time before returning to Fenelon Falls.

GLEN WILLIAMS Mayor Guest Speaker At Glen Home & School

The regular monthly meeting of the Glen Williams Home and School Club was held on Tuesday, March 13th in the school room. Mrs. C. G. Bishop, vice president, took charge of the evening's program. During the short business session the date of the executive meeting was changed to the last Tuesday in each month.

Guest speaker was Mayor John T. Armstrong from Georgetown who spoke on "Service to the Community and the School." His talk was very much enjoyed by the forty members present. Mrs. Bishop thanked him on behalf of the members for coming and speaking. Tea and cookies were served by the lunch committee and several of the men.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford had their baby daughter, Joanne Lillian christened in St. Alban's Anglican Church by Rev. Kenneth Richardson. The godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hills and their family spent the afternoon and evening with the Crawford family.

300 Attend Hornby Dinner and Dance

Over three hundred people attended the dance sponsored by the Hornby Scarlet Chapter of the Orange Lodge, in the Trafalgar Hall last Friday evening. Gilbert's Orchestra from Streetsville supplied the music. Prior to the dance the members held a turkey supper, to which the ladies of the Hornby W.I. catered. The lodge donated the proceeds from the supper to Milton Hospital. Following the dinner there was entertainment by Roberta Hawes of Georgetown who sang several solos and Mr. Thomas Warnes who also favoured with several enjoyable vocal selections. Everyone joined in a singsong before the dancing started.

The door prize at the dance was won by Mr. Percy Hall, Milton. The committee in charge of the event were Thomas Warnes, Georgetown; Lou Sampson, Hornby; Jim Hoey, Bethel; and Jim McLennan of Milton.
