STEWARTTOWN

Junior W.A. was held last week at Mrs. Baily's home. Trudy Walker chose "Jesus Christ is risen Today" for the opening hymn and conducted the worship service. Susan Smith presented the Wednesday pledge for prayer: The support of a cot in St. Luke's Hospital, Hebron, Palestine. Trudy Walker read the minutes of the last meeting, seconded by Ruth Atkinson. Our story was called "School with a Difference" showing how the missionary has to tell his people how to live and work beside teaching them about God and Jesus Christ.

The W.A. meeting was held at Mrs. Blizard's home Thursday with a quilting.

The Good Friday service was held at St. John's Church. Miss Ruby Tennant presided at the organ.

Visitors with Mrs. Baily for Good Friday were Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Baily and Stephen of Islington.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith for Easter were Mr. and Mrs. W. Huffman and three sons, Michael, Butch and Ivan.

Ineka Koeslag had a birthday party last week to celebrate her 11th birthday. Here guests were Carol McLean, Margaret Haasma, Jackie Barelay, Aneka Boerman, Trudy Gar- egie.

The service of Holy Communion was held at St. John's Church, Easter Sunday morning, Rev. J. E. Maxwell, celebrant. In the evening, members of St. Paul's, Norval, and St. Stephen's Hornby, were present to join in the service of evening. The Church was decorated with beautiful flowers for the Easter season.

A MESSAGE TO ANGLICANS St. George's Church

- A Prayer for the extension of Christ's Kingdom
- In our lives, in the Parish, and in the community

Almighty God, whose blessed Son has called all men to be His disciples in witness and work: Give us, we beseech Thee, at this time the power to hear and the grace to obey thy will, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. —Amen
