Georgetown Plans
Entry in Soccer

Georgetown will have a team in the southern Ontario soccer league this year.

John Miller, 9 Hewson Crescent is sparking interest in this sport locally, and people interested in playing on the team, in helping out with organization or sponsorship can contact him for information.

Groups will be formed and schedules drawn up later this month.

It is possible that Georgetown may be grouped with Hollandia, Hamilton, German Canadians and Germania, Hamilton; Galt Greenwhites and King Williams III, Guelph.

Soccer seems due for a revival of interest in Ontario. With heavy immigration from the British Isles and European countries where the game is a prime favourite, it is becoming more popular in this province, where a few years ago it was a little known sport.

Attempts have been made for the past two summers to keep a soccer team going here, under the name of Georgetown Wolves, and while it met with indifferent crowd support, there were a few games in the park, although the balance of home games were played out of town.

Perhaps this year will be it, and some of the crowds which deserted baseball a few years ago will come back to watch the soccer games.

SPRING SOCIAL FOR ANGLERS AND HUNTERS

On Good Friday the Anglers and Hunters had their annual spring social. It was a very successful day and nearly two hundred guests attended. Winners of the draw were: 1st J. Hillson of Brampton, No. 326, an electric frying pan; 2nd R. Black, Brampton, No. 489, glass spinning rod; 3rd portable ice box won by Glen Gibbs of Georgetown, No. 1577; 4th, electric tea kettle, No. 995 won by Tom Copland of Georgetown; F. Toth Sr. of Acton won the 5th prize of a portable barbecue with No. 1867. Consolation prizes were won by Jim Yates, Georgetown, Ev Buchanan, Brampton and Harry Mann of Georgetown.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by George!
The odd ball is back with his usual poor memory and a red face to match it this week. As you probably noticed in our last column, we predicted a dance for last Friday night, totally forgetful of the fact that last Friday was Good Friday! We were awakened from this blissful stupor on Wednesday by our fast-thinking vice prexy, Donna Bennett. She hastily erected notices on the bulletin board of GHS, pronouncing the change from Friday to Thursday night, and also directed the fumbling president to contact the powers-that-be to see if the hall was available. While this hapless churl was still wandering around in his usual Wednesday evening stupor, Gail McGillivray phoned to say that all was well for Thursday night. No wonder C.M. gets along without a president when he's not there! (Funny thing, they even seem to get along better without us). That could tend to give a man an inferiority complex. (Back to the head-shrinker, George.)

Enough self-condemnation for now. Nothing else to report, except that, despite the change of dates, and the short-notice advertising, the attendance at last week's dance was little short of the previous record. All of which goes to show you that kids are smarter than people when it comes to entertainment.

Well, as the fellows says, enough is too much, and this seems to be the end as we've run out of material (run out? all you had to start with was self-confidence!) So, we'll see you all Friday night at C.M. (Honest, it is Friday night, this week.)
