Jack Gunning Chosen Lions Zone Chairman

Past president of Georgetown Lions Club, Jack Gunning has been elected chairman for Zone 6 of Lions International.

Mr. Gunning was unanimously chosen for the job at a meeting in Port Credit last week. Other zone officers will be elected at a meeting in Erin on May 2nd.

Since joining the Provincial Paper staff in Georgetown ten years ago, Mr. Gunning has been an active Lion. He has held several offices in the club, secretary, treasurer and in 1953-54 was president. A chemical engineer, he is supervisor of control and development with the company.

His duties as zone chairman will put him in contact with 9 Lions clubs at Erin, Georgetown, Brampton, Malton, Streetsville, Oakville, Credit Valley, Dixie and Clarkson.

Highways Statistician Lions Guest Speaker

Chief of the statistical section of the Ontario Dept. of Highways, Mr. Maloney told members of Georgetown Lions Club about the work of his department when he was a guest at their meeting last Tuesday.

Members learned of the intensive work which is done in compiling traffic information which forms the basis for decisions on where traffic lights should be installed, road curves lessened and dangerous intersections protected. They learned that, in spite of the seemingly numerous accidents on the Queen Elizabeth Way, it is one of the safest highways, when taking into account the volume of traffic it serves.

The meeting was held at North Halton Golf & Country Club, with Lion Stan Wade catering. Twenty-two members of the new Dixie Lions Club paid a return visit and were entertained.

LIMEHOUSE

The Shel Lawrs spent Easter at Victoria Harbour.
Miss Jackie Cohoon spent her Easter holidays at home. She attends O.C.E., Toronto.

Peter Glyn was with cousins at Woodbridge for his holidays.
Miss Ivens spent last week-end with relatives at Brantford.

The W.A. held a sale of home-made baking in town last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mills arrived home Sunday after spending four months at Daytona Beach, Florida. After a day's driving in quite warm weather, they ran into rain and later heavy storms of last week-end.

FIREMEN FIGHT FIRST GRASS FIRE YESTERDAY
Spring is definitely here according to members of the fire department who were called yesterday to the first grass fire of the season.
Grass in a field on the Harold Cleave farm, behind Ray Whitmee's house on Young St. drew their attention for half an hour in the afternoon, when a neighbour became alarmed about a spreading fire. The fire started in an unknown manner, and was extinguished without damage.

UN to Watch Balloting in Trust Area

The first plebiscite ever to take place in a UN Trust Territory is scheduled in British-administered Togoland for early May 1956 when the people will be consulted as to their future political status. The voting will be supervised by a UN group of observers, headed by UN Plebiscite Commissioner Eduardo Espinosa Prieto of Mexico. Mr. Espinosa, center, and the group's Principal Secretary, Heinrich Wieschhoff, right, discuss plans prior to their departure with UN Under-Secretary for Trusteeship, Benjamin Cohen. The UN mission is now in Togoland where registration for the voting has begun.
