Ladies Beware!

- Many local people have been hoodwinked by out-of-town salesmen selling inferior products. Some have been victimized by crooks.
For your protection a by-law exists in Georgetown whereby every pedlar (except those selling agricultural products grown on their own premises) must have a licence. While every licence holder must be approved by the local police, it is better to follow these points for every precaution:
- 1. Ask every person selling anything to produce their licence from the Town of Georgetown.
- 2. Use your own cheque book and make your own cheque out to the firm, not to the individual. Fill out all vacant spaces on your cheques.
- 3. If you sign a contract read it carefully.
- 4. Best of all, deal with your local businessman whenever possible. He pays local taxes and he is always keenly interested in keeping a satisfied customer.
