If you send
cash through the mails,

you run a real risk of losing it. For your own peace of mind, it's far wiser to send money orders. The small amount a money order costs, assures you that your money will be safe and sound. No one can receive the cash except the person to whom you send the money order. Next time you want to send money, whether $5.00 or $500.00, call in on us for a money order or bank draft. This takes only a few minutes to arrange. It's one of the many helpful banking services we provide.

MAKE PRESENTATION TO PERCY LAIRD

On Friday evening 60 neighbours and friends gathered in the school-house to honor Percy Laird who has sold his farm. Cards were played the first part of the evening, after which Percy was presented with a Bulova wrist watch.

That same evening, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell and Howson entertained the players in the winning drama festival and their friends to a turkey dinner, court whist was played and all report a wonderful evening.

Mrs. Arthur Ruddell, Mrs. Cecil Wilson, Mrs. W. Bird and Mrs. R. Cunningham attended the W.A. Presbyterial at Freelon on Monday, Apr. 9th.

Mrs. C. B. Dick, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Thos. Giffen, Mrs. George Nurse, Mrs. Bruce Brigden and Mrs. John Bellbuddy attended the twenty-seventh annual meeting of Halton Presbyterial of the W.M.S. on Tuesday, April 10th in Millgrove United Church.

The Young People held their meeting on Sunday evening at the home of Barbara and Ralph Cunningham with Margaret Bird and Bob Ruddell in charge. Mrs. Thos. Giffen spoke to them on "Fellowship".

Rev. George Leck of Grand Valley was a very welcome caller last Friday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse.

Wedding bells are going to be ringing again, which means we are losing one of our lovely young girls.

THE MAIL BAG

Like Town Visitors But Not Their Presents

April 14th, 1956

Dear Mr. Editor:

Spring is here again, yes, and we farmers know it very well. Why the town folk insist on dumping their garbage in our fence corners is something I'll never understand; especially since you have a garbage pick-up in town. Never yet have I known a farmer to bring his garbage to town and dump it on your front lawn.

You see I am quite justified in saying this as it has just happened to us, and I may add this isn't the first time.

The garbage that was found in our fence corner was quite easily identified as the donor had included some mail, so one didn't have to be much of a detective to find its owner.

We phoned Mrs. X (as we will call her) and the excuse she gave us was that the collectors quite often do not pick up their garbage. I would say these people should get in touch with the town council and find out why their garbage is not being picked up, as the taxpayers are paying for this service.

I am quite sure if their garbage is being put out in the right manner and right time it would be picked up.

Rather than reporting our Mrs. X to the police (as we could have done) we phoned and she agreed to have said garbage removed—thus saving herself a fine.

It is so nice to drive out in the country in the summer and see the beauty of it. PLEASE help us to keep it that way by not dumping your garbage on our back roads and farm property.

Thank you,
A FARMER'S WIFE.

Jim Kirkwood Church Speaker Next Sunday

The Easter thank-offering of the W.M.S. groups was held Sunday evening. Members of the Young People, Bonnie Cotton and Ross Shortill had charge of the opening devotionals. Mrs. F. J. Shortill sang a lovely solo "God Speaks to Me" and a duet by Pearl and Alma Sinclair was much appreciated. The Mission Band contributed two choruses; Mrs. K. Cotton gave a reading on Stewardship. The guest speaker for the evening was Rev. Orval Getty of Brampton, a former missionary of India. He delighted the children with several songs in English and Indian dialect and played enjoyable selections of Indian tunes on the harmonica. Rev. Getty described the caste system stating that the Bhramins are the highest caste and very few of these have ever become Christian. Most Christian natives are those of lower classes—"The common people hear Him gladly." Mrs. F. Smith thanked the speaker and others who had contributed to the program.

The W.A. met at the home of Mrs. J. Snow on Tuesday afternoon. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs.

F. Smith from Psalm 16. The roll call was answered with "What I left undone to get here today." Mrs. Perryman and Mrs. Snow served lunch at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. R. Warne, Mrs. F. Shortill, Mrs. E. McEnery and Miss B. Hiltz attended the W.M.S. Presbyterial at Millgrove on Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Sinclair has returned home from Guelph hospital where he was under observation for a week.

Shirley Kirkwood visited Sunday with her brother Jim in Toronto and attended service in Deer Park church. Jim will be guest speaker at the three churches here next Sunday.

First Baptists Hear Foreign Missionaries

The congregation of First Baptist Church was visited over last weekend by three representatives of its Foreign Mission enterprise. At the Sunday evening service Rev. E. J. Church, of India preached on the implications of the Great Commission of Jesus. To preach the gospel so that an indigenous church may arise and the needs of the people may be fully met requires missionaries with many different qualifications, doctors, nurses, teachers as well as evangelists. Mr. Church had the happy experience of being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fawcett, Mountainview Road, the latter of whom is his cousin. They had not seen each other for many years.

On Monday evening the young people had the pleasure of hearing and seeing colored slides of the work in India and Bolivia. Rev. John Hart, a veteran missionary from India presented the overwhelming tasks that confronts the Christian worker in a land so thickly populated and with the problems of poverty, ignorance and superstition. The Rev. Peter Amy, an old university friend of Rev. Alfred Barker of First Baptist, showed slides of colorful Bolivia. He has had considerable work to do during this first term in that land in connection with the expansion of the facilities of the Southern Cross radio station in La Paz, Bolivia, which is operated by the Canadian Baptist Mission.

A fourth member of the team Miss Doris Millson, will join these three for the general Missionary Rally of Baptists of the area in First Baptist Church, Guelph, on Wednesday night, April 18th.
