

WORK PROGRESSES ON HORNBY PARK

A group of 34 men, with 3 tractors and two chain saws, accomplished a good amount of work Saturday at the new Hornby Park.

It is hoped to finish the job this Saturday before spring seeding, and volunteers will be welcomed to share in the work.

STEWARTTOWN

MR. AND MRS. SANFORD
50th ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations and best wishes from all the people in Stewarttown to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sanford who are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary this week.

Happy birthday wishes to Mrs. J. H. Smith for next Wednesday, Apr. 25.

Happy birthday to Peter Canham for Thursday, April 26.

Also happy birthday to Bette Mae Mileham who will be 10 years old Friday, April 27, and happy birthday to Dan Smith on the first of next month.

The music festival was held in the township hall Tuesday of last week. Those attending it certainly had a music treat all day. The music teachers must have been gratified with the results of their year's work.

Visitors with Mrs. Baily on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baily of Toronto.

Girls Pipe Band is Booked for Convention

Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band, known to Lions over a wide area through their participation in Lions International conventions in the States, will again be featured at a gathering of club representatives this year.

The pipe band have agreed to represent Georgetown in a parade in Niagara Falls on May 27th during a District A convention in that city.

Enthusiasm is High
For the Soccer Club

It looks as if Georgetown will enjoy some really good soccer games this summer. Several people interested in soccer and soccer players have been working very hard to organize a good working executive and team and enthusiasm is running very high. The financial problem which is always a big one in any organization has been greatly helped by the following people who have helped financially as well as giving moral support:

Ann Paterson, Joe's Tuck Shop, Robb's Drug Store, McNamara Jewellers, Georgetown Herald, Maple Leaf Dairy, Georgetown Creamery, Roxy Theatre, Ernie's Radio, Walter T. Evans & Company, Buck's Fine Foods Jack Williamson, Town & Country Floor Service, Murt Allison, G. R. Muckart, Hewson Motors, Modern Meat Market, Corner Cupboard, Livingstone Bakery, Neighbourhood Sewing Centre, Jack's Taxi, Georgetown Dairy, J. B. Mackenzie & Son Ltd., Western Tire & Auto Supply Ltd., Richardson's Hardware, Farnell's, Cottage Inn, Beaver Lumber Company, Bill McDonald, Thompson's Hardware, Norton Floral, Wigo T.V., Barclay's Haulage, Milliere TV, Main & Guelph Motors, Peter Homan, Girard's Store, Silver's, Cordaro Candies, Jack's Bargain Centre.

These people have really given the club the boost they need and if there are any interested people who would like to help, call Mrs. A. Crichton, 57 Hewson Cresc., TR. 7-3129.
