

Anglican Clergymen
At Refreher School

Tuesday and Wednesday Anglican clergy of the Diocese of Niagara met at historic St. Mark's Church, Niagara-on-the-Lake. The school is sponsored by the committee on evangelism under the chairmanship of the Reverend E. Brillinger. Three lectures on "The Anglican Spirit" with reference to F. D. Maurice were given by Reverend W. R.

Coleman, M.A., Principal of Huron College. Lectures on "Prayer Book Revision" were delivered by the Reverend Lyndon Smith, Professor of Church History, Trinity College, Toronto.

The clergy from the Diocese of Niagara took part and clergy from the Diocese of Western New York attended the two-day school and were guests of the parish of St. Mark's. The rector is the Reverend C. N. P. Blagrave.

Television Announcer
Aldred Visits Town

Joel Aldred whom everyone feels they know thru his work as master-of-ceremonies on the Bob Hope show, the Perry Como show and the "I Love Lucy" show, was a recent visitor in town with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bradshaw. Mr. Aldred came out to Georgetown with his friend John Bradshaw of Toronto, who is a cousin of Tony Bradshaw's. They called in at the Norton Floral shop on Main Street where Mrs. Bradshaw works, and Mr. Aldred added to his popularity with the Norton family by purchasing three potted plants to take back home with him. Everyone in the store got a big thrill out of meeting such a well-known personality.

John Bradshaw and Tony Bradshaw both come from England, and John Bradshaw is a frequent visitor with his cousin. He is head of the T.V. and Radio Farm programs on the North American continent for the

FARM NEWS

REAL ESTATE TOPIC

J. E. W.

Wherever two or more farm operators congregate these days, the general topic is real estate, options, agreements of sale, etc. The late spring has had to take a very minor conversational position because farming incentive is almost something of the past, at least below the escarpment. And well it may be, because reports of farm sales from the Dundas Street to the Queen Elizabeth come in terms of anything from $1,000 to $2,000 or more per acre. In the Snyders' Corners area of Trafalgar township, $1,000 per acre also seems to be the prevailing figure with $500 to $600 as far north as the Hornby base line. Is it any wonder that farming incentive is at a low ebb? What these farms are being purchased for, no one appears to know. Real estate speculation would appear to be the immediate objective,
