Brampton Elects Misener To Council

Walter O. Misener, former Bell Telephone district manager and now operator of Peel Credit & Collection Agency, was elected to Brampton council in a by-election last week.

Mr. Misener, who missed a council seat in November by only five votes, received almost half the votes in an election which saw only 17% of the voters go to the polls. He polled 547, while William Robinson had 299 and E. J. Fobert 271.

He will fill the unexpired term of Fen Job, CFJB radio station owner, who was killed in a highway crash recently.

HORNBY

Neighbours Pitch In To Create Hornby Park

A 12-acre park at Hornby, which will be jointly administered by Esquesing administered by Esquesing and Trafalgar townships is rapidly taking shape.

Located on property purchased from the King family, owners for over a century, it is on the Base Line at the 6th Line. The wooded, partly rolling land has a small creek running along one side of it.

Neighbouring residents have been generously donating their time and equipment on week-ends. A number of trees have been felled, trimmed and burned. Tractors, bulldozers, chain saws and hand labour have been used in this fine community endeavor.

Church Men Participate In St. George's Service

St. George's day was marked in the usual way at St. George's Anglican when members of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen took part in the morning service.

Sam Penrice, people's warden, reported on the progress of the Loyalty Drive, saying that the church has advanced spiritually, numerically and financially through a visitation canvass which is just concluding. Intention cards, signifying money pledged by the congregation were presented with the morning offering.

Thomas Warnes and Thomas Eason took parts of the service, and the lessons were read by Edwin Wilson and Charles Harris.

Walter Biehn and Chas. Harris, president and secretary of St. George's BAC chapter, were installed during

GLEN WILLIAMS

GEORGETOWN FIREMEN SAVE BARN FROM FIRE

Major damage to a barn at Glen Williams was averted early Sunday morning when a neighbour noticed the blaze, and prompt arrival of Georgetown fire department was credited with saving it.

Driving to his home nearby, Les Ottaway saw reflection of flames at the rear of the barn on the William Gilman farm where Mr. and Mrs. Bill Isley live. He put in a fire call and the township area truck was only minutes in arriving.

The barn which was empty except for a quantity of hay, was damaged to some extent.

Travelling Dickensons Are Seeing the World

Mrs. James Dickenson who formerly lived on Victoria Street and is now living in Kingston, where Mr. Dickenson is employed, is sailing this week for England, her first visit home in twenty-seven years.

She will visit with members of her family and Mr. Dickenson's. She also hopes to see her daughter Betty, Mrs. George M. Kay, who is in Paris where her husband is stationed with the American Army. Fred Dickenson, a son, has just docketed in Halifax, his ship the "Quebec" is just back from the Caribbean Sea. It is difficult for Mrs. M. Lorusso, a daughter, and Leslie, a son, in Georgetown to keep track of their travelling family.

AT ESQUESING COUNCIL

Defer Hospital Grant Pending Agnew Report

Discussing a possible grant to the new Milton hospital at their meeting on April 16th, Esquesing Council deferred action until a report being compiled by Dr. Agnew is made to the county council.

Alvin Anderson, James Carney and Cr. Spencer Wilson are township appointees to the new Hornby community park board.

A 1-ton truck will be purchased from Maveal Motors, Georgetown at the tender price of $2383.

A by-law was passed permitting use of Esquesing Area 1 fire truck for mutual aid calls.

A. Papillon, Acton was paid $12 for 4 foxes destroyed. Bradford Clements and George Brown addressed council concerning insurance for township employees. $100 was paid to Georgetown for Service and Switzer fire calls, and $100 to Milton for Gillies and Switzer calls.

TRUE BLUES EUCHRE IN ODD FELLOWS HALL

Thursday evening of last week the Loyal True Blues held a most successful euchre in the Odd Fellows' Hall. A good crowd was in attendance and enjoyed a good game of cards. Mrs. Jack Tost came away with the first prize, Margaret Cain, second, Jack Cain third and Mrs. Louis Tracey fourth.

There was a draw for an electric frying pan which Mrs. Albert Norton, Arletta Street, won.

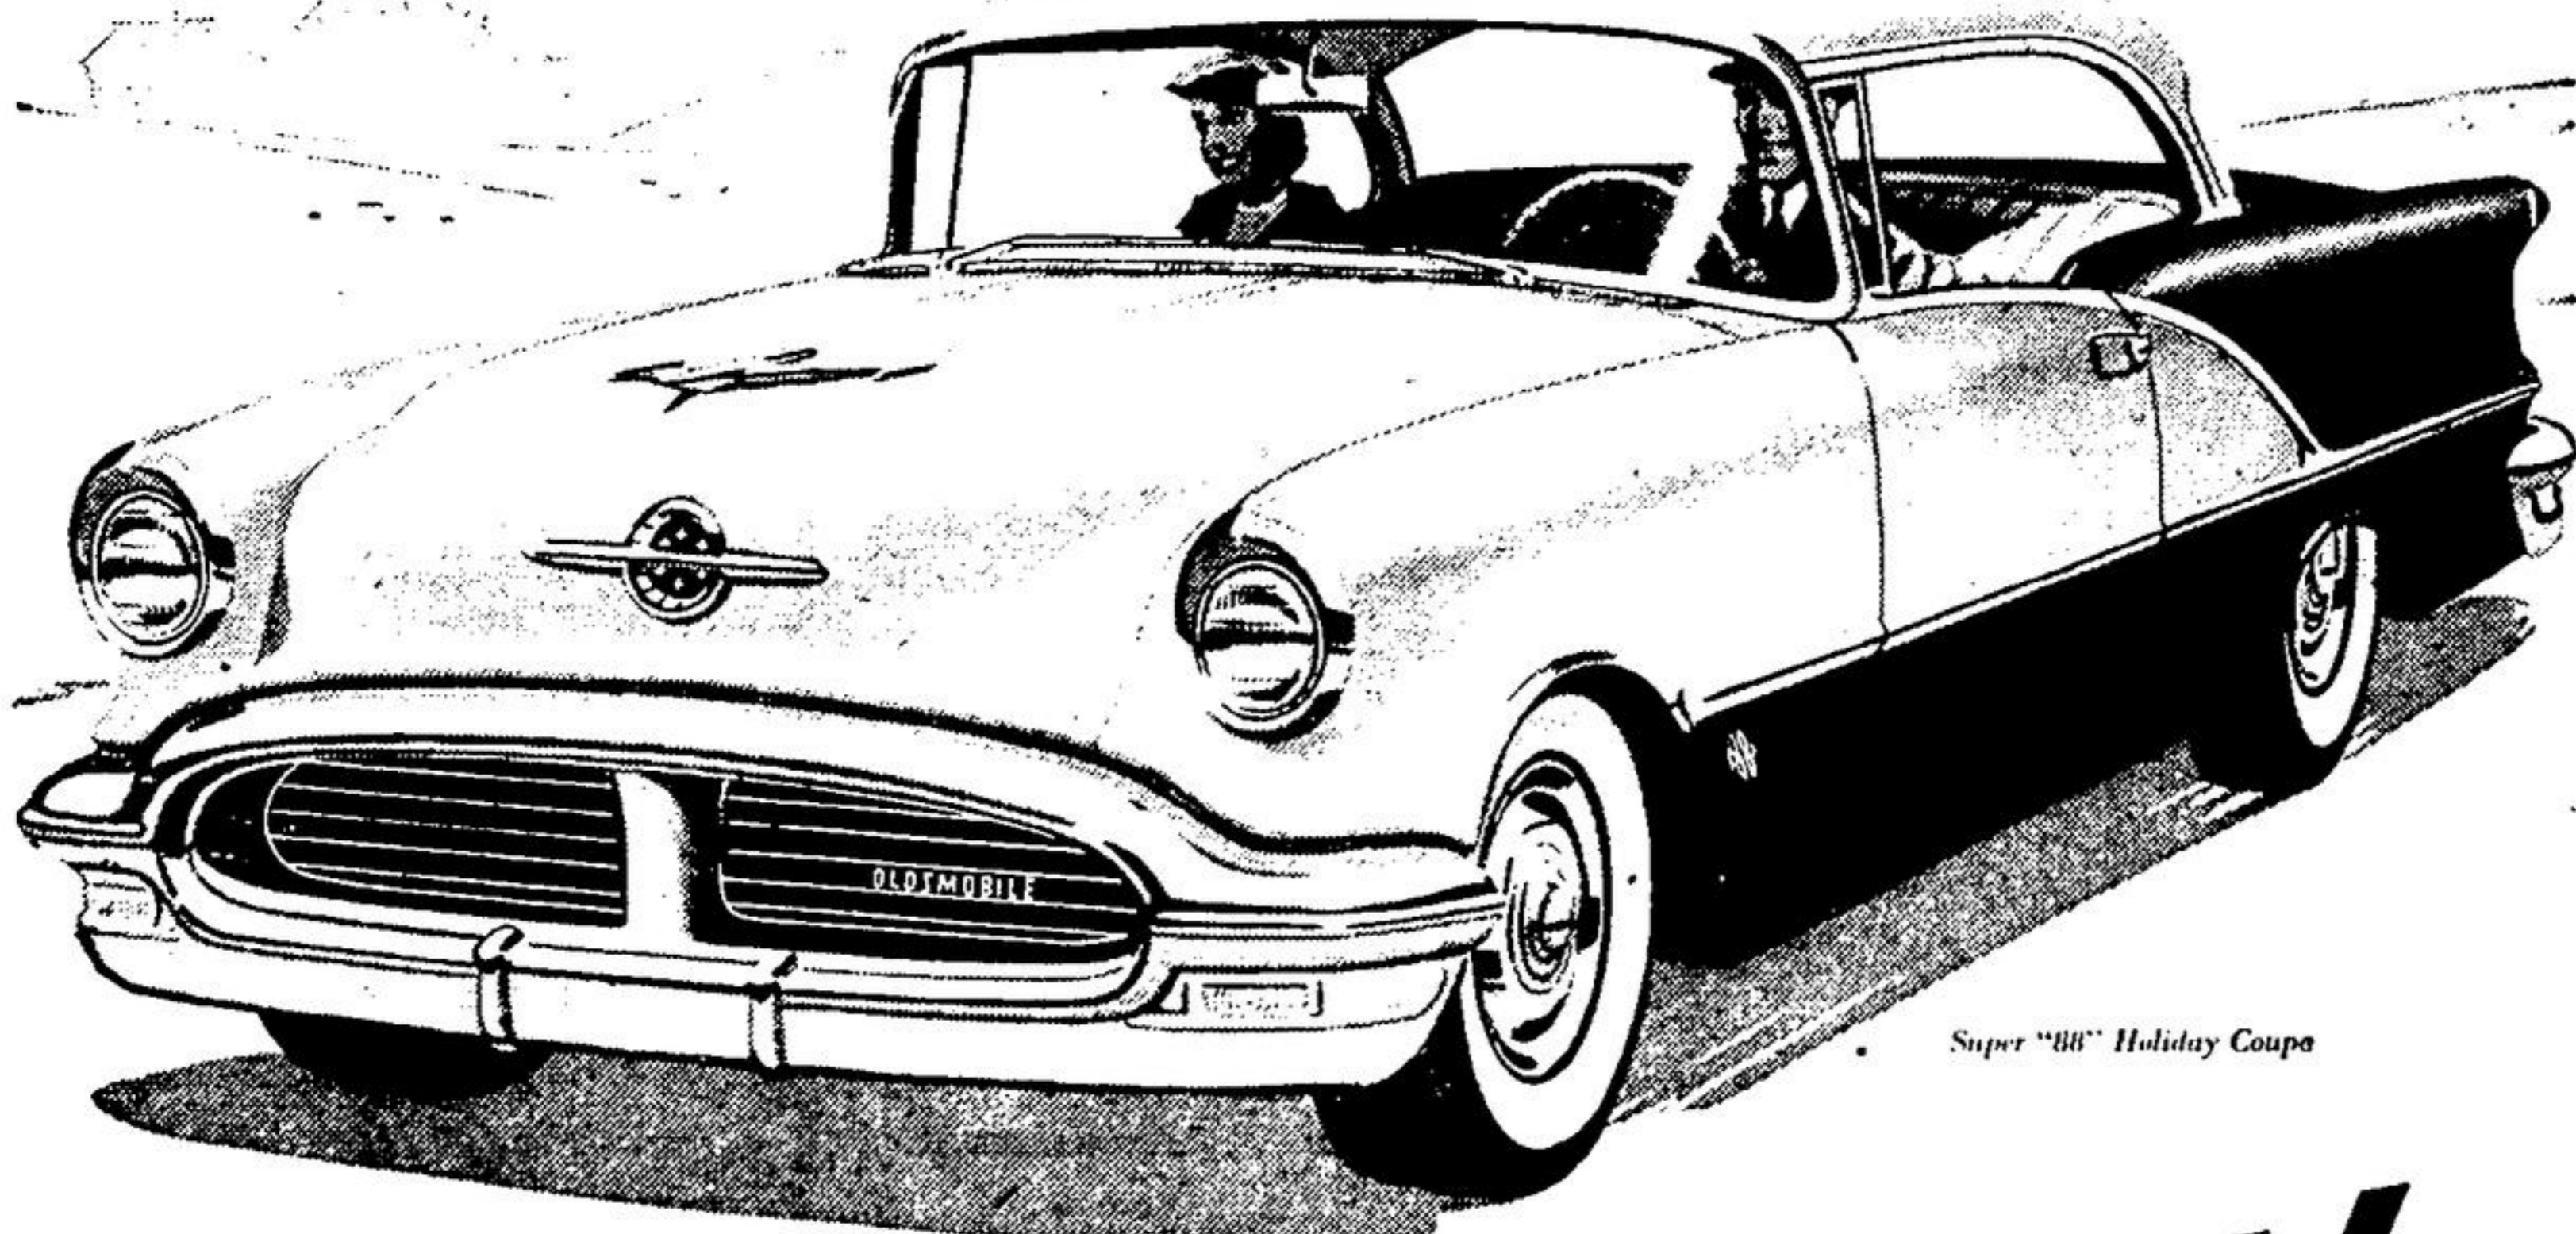

Two Hospitalized After Accident Near Orangeville

The first fishing trip of the season turned into a most disastrous one for two Georgetown men, Mr. Roy Wiggins and Mr. Walter Louth Junior.

They were returning home Saturday morning at 10.30 and when four miles north of Orangeville they hit a soft shoulder and from that skidded into a washout and the truck in which they were riding overturned. Both men are in the Lord-Dufferin Hospital, Orangeville. They suffered bruises and broken ribs and were very badly shaken up.

The heavy rains which left the roads in poor condition were the cause of the accident. The truck is completely wrecked.
