SMITH & STONE
BOWLING BANQUET
Godfrey Collier succeeded Dave Stamp as president of the Smith & Stone bowling league when officers for next season were chosen at the annual banquet May 15th in the Legion auditorium.

Other club officers elected were Eileen Kerr and Elmer Fendley, secretaries and Murice Herbert, treasurer.

Mr. Stamp was chairman for the banquet which concluded with dancing to music of Reg Ryall's Rhythm Rascals after the prize giving. There were a number of door prizes also.

The Pencil Pushers, captained by Ken DeRose were league champions and received their trophies, while the Platers captained by Henry Chaplin were playoff champions for the second year in a row.

Dave Stamp's 217 was season's high average for men and Mrs. Earl Emond's 215 for ladies. Mr. Stamp and Henry Chaplin tied with 345 for season's high single and Henry had high triple of 876.

Margaret Cain won honours for the season in both sections for the ladies, with 383 and 846 games.

In the playoffs, Marie Hulme had high single and triple, 362 and 818. For the men Elmer Fendley had best single 340 and George Webster best triple 814.

The Lucky Strike Club where the league operates donated the playoff trophies.

Ironwork Decoration Plan for Park Gates
Work on the stone gates at the park entrance, a combined project of the Chamber of Commerce and Georgetown Women's Institute, will be completed soon.

At a Chamber of Commerce meeting last week, Dick Licata reported progress to date and explained that it is planned to finish off the work by linking the pedestrian entrance posts with some form of metalwork. Sam Reid offered to have sketch plans made of the grillwork, and price quotes will be obtained for submission to the next Chamber meeting.

The question of night depositories at the two local banks, for convenience of merchants, has been shelved for the time being.

A survey made by the Chamber showed that only 12 merchants would be interested in paying for this service, and it is not believed the banks would be interested in establishing the service for such a limited number.

Plan Shopping Campaign By Georgetown Merchants
Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, a majority of Georgetown merchants will participate in a shop in Georgetown campaign currently being planned.

Decision to undertake the campaign was made at a meeting of the Chamber on May 22nd in the public library. Al Norton, new head of the retail section of the C of C is in charge of arranging details.

Merchants had previously been circularized with two suggested plans and a majority agreed on one which will offer 25c gift certificates with each $5.00 purchase which will be redeemable in merchandise at any participating store at the campaign's conclusion. Merchants would buy the certificates for 30c, the extra money to be used for promotion.
