FEW BOY SCOUT
GUESTS OF CANADA
at the 1955 Jamboree had a chance to see the great dams and smelters that make Canada a world supplier of aluminum.

But some did see a Canadian use of the light metal: outdoor cooking with aluminum foil. One Canadian troop showed how they used this handy material for doing potatoes, steaks and other foods over the campfire; how they kept food fresh in summer heat by protecting it with aluminum. If this missionary work carries the idea back to distant lands, Canada may have to turn out still more aluminum foil—even though last year her output, if laid in a 12-inch strip, would reach 382,000 miles.

Chatting... with M. H. B.

● I'M AFRAID YOU'LL HAVE to pardon me today if I seem to be stumbling over the keys of the typewriter a bit... I'm sleepy... You know, one of the perennial situation jokes of cartoonists and jokesters is the one where the wife awakens her husband out of a sound sleep in the depths of the night, imagining she has heard a prowler... Well, I actually did hear one last night...
... The sound of a loud thump or crash awakened me the first time. Or half-awakened me would be more truthful. I thought fuzzily that either a child had fallen out of bed or the hot water rads had given an extra-loud crack as they are sometimes wont to do... While waiting for further sound before getting up to investigate I must have dozed off to sleep again, because I awakened with a start for a second time, to hear another loud and unmistakable crash of something or someone falling. I jumped right up this time. As I hurried over to the girls' room I could hear the patter of light footsteps, and as I peered into the room I saw two brilliant green eyes blazing at me for a split second, before the thing streaked past me and headed for the stairs...

● IT GAVE ME SUCH a scare I didn't even think to turn on the light, but instead turned and ran to waken a still soundly sleeping husband. He hopped out of bed in record time, and turned on the hall light to reveal the intruder—a very frightened black and white cat crouched at the bottom of the stairs... When we went downstairs after it, the cat gave us a merry chase all over the downstairs. Finally cornered, it was squirming and clawing in fright as we finally ejected it back out into the night from whence it came...
... We're still not sure how it got in, but the only possibility we can think of makes it fairly certain the cat was in the house all evening. We waited until morning to see what had caused so much noise. In one of the girl's bedrooms we found he had pulled the window blind right off its moorings, and in the same room had pulled down the curtains and curtain brackets... Fine thing... No wonder it took me a while to get back to sleep again!

● NINETY-FOUR AND ninety-five per cent are wonderful examination marks in any man's language... and even more so if it is a strange language. That is why particular congratulations are in order for two of our New Canadians, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich Sommer. Mr. and Mrs. Sommer tried the final examinations set by the Department of Education Citizenship Branch, after attending Night School classes in the high school here for two years, obtaining these outstanding percentages. Mr. Sommer received the 95 per cent and Mrs. Sommer 94 per cent...
... Another remarkable thing about these marks is the fact that only Mr. Sommer was able to attend the Night School classes. Because they have small children, Mrs. Sommer couldn't attend. So after he received his lesson Mr. Sommer returned home to teach his wife. The marks speak well of his ability, as well as that of the Night School teacher, Miss Florence Luke, of the high school staff. There were 12 New Canadians enrolled in Night School this year. It was held every Tuesday night at the high school. The attendance of the New Canadians at these classes where instruction on Canadian geography, history and the language is offered indicates their ambition to become real Canadians in the best sense of the term. They deserve a lot of credit, and I feel they will do well in our country...

● TO CHAT a little while about an "old" citizen of Georgetown... I received a very nice letter today from Mrs. Reuben Eason, who lives in Campbellford. Mr. and Mrs. Eason and their two daughters are former residents of town and altho they have been away for quite a few years, still take a very keen interest in what goes on in Georgetown... Mrs. Eason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carter, live here, and both Mr. and Mrs. Eason have brothers and sisters living in Georgetown... I know all their friends here will be pleased to know how well the two Eason daughters did in the recently-held Northumberland Music Festival in Brighton. June came first in the mezzo soprano (open), with 84 points, for which she received a trophy medal, and also won the $25. scholarship. This makes her third scholarship. June's younger sister, Elizabeth Anne also shows promise of emulating her. She came first in the class for 11 years and under, with 86 marks, receiving a gold brooch.

● NOTING OUR HOSPITAL campaign, Mrs. Eason mentioned that the Campbellford Memorial Hospital was opened in 1953. In her letter too, Mrs. Eason remarks that Campbellford is noted for its numerous churches. They have Anglican, United, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic, Baptist, Free Methodist, The Glad Tidings Tabernacle, Christian Science and the Salvation Army. Mr. and Mrs. Eason attend the Anglican Christ Church, where June leads the junior choir.
