Hospital Board Plans Victoria Fair as Annual

The Georgetown Hospital Association wish to announce that the Gala Fair held on May 21st was successful to such an extent that it is being planned as an annual event in support of the hospital.

It is estimated that upwards to a thousand cars and twenty-five hundred people packed the fairgrounds for the evening entertainment and a considerable portion of the crowd also attended in the afternoon.

The Bingo put on by the Canadian Legion was well patronized and about $170 was turned over to the Hospital fund and a further $80 collected was retained to procure prizes for a further bingo for the same fund.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion also sold raffle tickets on a doll and ran a refreshment booth on the grounds both of which raised a considerable amount.

The Catholic Women's League also had a refreshment booth and raised $80 which was turned over to the Hospital Fund.

The Georgetown Rotary Club organized the parade which preceded the afternoon events.

The Lions Club organized and ran the games of chance which added considerably to the enjoyment of the crowd.

The most spectacular event and a fitting climax to the gala day was the fireworks display put on by the Canadian Legion and the Town of Georgetown.

The sale of tickets during the day was in excess of $150, and the association officials feel that in publicity and funds the day was completely successful.

The officials of the association wish to express their sincere thanks to all those who worked and helped in any way to make the day such a success.

CITY YOUNG ANGLICANS CONFERENCE AT Y CAMP

A group of Anglican young people from Toronto held a week-end conference at the West End YMCA camp Norval, which concluded with a Sunday morning service in St. Paul's Anglican Church.

Some one hundred attended. They are members of Koinonia and represented various city churches. The fellowship is designed to deepen the religious life of young people, and it was the third annual conference held here.

Rev. Peter Gratten, former rector of St. Olive's Church, Toronto, preached at the church service which was conducted by Rev. J. E. Maxwell. Mr. and Mrs. Gratten are leaving in July for a mission post in the diocese of Amritsar, India. Two of the conference young people read the lessons.

At the service, Mr. Maxwell officiated at a dedication of gifts to the church property. These included an altar frontal and super-frontal in memory of Mary Jane Coupland, his mother-in-law, two church flags in memory of Charles and Thomas Burton, and a door plaque in memory of Elizabeth Mary Jean Maxwell, first child of the rector and his wife.
