Michael Stewardson Wins St. Andrew's Scholasship

Michael Stewardson, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewardson, 21 Tyers Ave. has been awarded a scholarship to St. Andrew's College, Aurara, and will enroll at the school in September.

Michael was one of several boys who wrote a series of qualifying exams in May. The $800 yearly scholarship is good for his entire secondary school education providing he maintains satisfactory grades.

An outstanding student all through his public school course, he has placed at or near the top every year in his classes. His entire public school education has been received in Georgetown, with the exception of kindergarten. He attended Franklin School, Toronto, for this year and the next year his parents moved to town when Mr. Stewardson joined the Smith and Stone staff.

Michael started his public schooling at Chapel Street School, and has been at Wigglesworth School since it opened. He is in Principal William Kinrade's Grade 9 class this year. His father is a member of the public school board.

BALLINAFAD

Institute Sparks New Community Hall at 'Fad

Ballinafad Women's Institute had called a community meeting at Teacock School on the evening of June 25th to discuss building a new community hall in the village.

At the June W.I. meeting at the home of Mrs. Maurice Baker a report was given by Mrs. Norman Sinclair on arrangements which have been made to obtain land, plans and a building permit, and this information will be made public at the meeting.

Mrs. Archie McEnery presided at the meeting and 16 members answered roll call "how to keep your vigor and your figure."

Mrs. Tom Gibson gave the highlights of the District Annual held at Bethel Church. Mrs. Frank Smith reported on the cost of searching the deeds for the old community hall. Mrs. Robert McEnery explained details of a planned bus trip to Brantford.

Mrs. E. McEnery was convener for a health program which was opened with a musical contest, guessing the names of tunes played by the convener. Mrs. N. Sinclair was the winner.

Mrs. Sinclair sang a solo and coming events were given by Mrs. E. McLean. A two minute report was given by the agriculture convener. The motto "A day of worry is more exhausting than a week of work" was given by Mrs. D. Brown. Mrs. E. McEnery gave an informative reading on cancer.

The July meeting was planned for the evening rather than the afternoon. The hosts and social committee served lunch at the close of the meeting.

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. Walter Taylor Speaks About Mexico

The Junior W.A. meeting was held last week at Mrs. Baily's home. Gretha Koeslag had charge of the worship service. The hymn was "We pray for little children." Carolyn Devereaux presented the Thursday pledge: 1. Village Island, BC; 2. All Saints' Hospital, Aklavik; The year's work was laid out for the friends to see. The busy period was spent on scrapbooks trying to get them finished up.

The W.A. meeting was held at Mrs. Blizard's home when a quilt was finished up. The meeting was held Wednesday to make way for the Guild meeting Thursday.

Thursday afternoon St. John's Guild sponsored a sale of baking and fancy articles and afternoon tea. Mrs. Bradley the president extended a welcome to the guests and presented a very enjoyable program. Mrs. Francis Thompson sang two solos accompanied by Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. W. Carter of Mount Dennis who also accompanied in her two solos. Miss Stone introduced the speaker, Mrs. Walter Taylor of Toronto, who gave an interesting talk on her trip to Mexico. Mrs. Atkinson thanked Mrs. Taylor for her talk. Little Donna Stewart played a piano solo. Mrs. J. Bird, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Miss E. Appelbe and Mrs. Baily poured tea for the refreshments.

The children of Stewarttown School were taken by bus to Toronto last Friday. They visited the museum, Canada Bread and The Telegram. They returned home very tired but all had a good time.

Esquering Women's Institute meeting is being held at Mrs. Robert Lawson's home Wednesday evening of this week.

In the absence of Rev. J. E. Maxwell, who is on holidays, the service at St. John's Church was taken by Mr. W. H. Beaumont of Glen Williams, on Sunday.

When driving from Ashgrove to Stewarttown motorists will see a sign-board, restricting weight and speed. There are some bad spots in the road and care will be wise.

Happy birthday to Gail Walker who will be ten years old Friday of this week, June 15th.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Grant over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Locke of Toronto and Mr. Bob Smethurst of Vancouver. Mr. Smethurst lived here 50 years ago and this is his first visit back. He is Mrs. Grant's father's brother.
